Personnel Administration in a Girl Scout Council Girl Scouts of the United States of America, 1957 Volunteering As Leisure/leisure As Volunteering Robert A. Stebbins, Margaret Graham, 2004-04-07 Volunteerism is a topic of increasing importance in this age of budget cuts declining employment and amid the threat posed by other competing leisure pursuits There are both social and economic benefits of volunteering As we are becoming more reliant on volunteers there is a need for a better understanding of why people take up volunteering and how to recruit manage motivate and support volunteers most effectively In order for organisations that host volunteers to achieve the most from their volunteers they must understand how to give them the best leisure experience This book examines critical aspects of contemporary volunteerism from the perspective of a variety of volunteering contexts It will appeal to academic researchers and students in disciplines such as leisure recreation tourism management and sociology as well as practitioners in the voluntary sector including volunteers National and Local Government and those organising special events that depend on voluntary support Girl Scout Leader, 1959 Public Relations Committee Manual Girl Scouts of the United States of America, 1954 State, 1984 The Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and Pipestone Indian Schools Cynthia Leanne Landrum, 2019-03-01 The Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and Pipestone Indian Schools illuminates the relationship between the Dakota Sioux community and the schools and surrounding region as well as the community's long term effort to maintain its role as caretaker of the sacred citadel of its people Cynthia Leanne Landrum explores how Dakota Sioux students at Flandreau Indian School in South Dakota and at Pipestone Indian School in Minnesota generally accepted the idea that they should attend these particular boarding institutions because they saw them as a means to an end and ultimately as community schools This construct operated within the same philosophical framework in which some Eastern Woodland nations approached a non Indian education that was simultaneously tied to long term international alliances between Europeans and First Peoples beginning in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Landrum provides a new perspective from which to consider the Dakota people's overt acceptance of this non Native education system and a window into their ongoing evolutionary relationships with all of the historic overtures and tensions that began the moment alliances were first brokered between the Algonquian Confederations and the European powers Bulletin of the National Conference of Charities and Correction National Conference of Charities and Correction (U.S.), 1953 Growing Girls Susan A Miller, 2007-07-20 In the early years of the twentieth century Americans began to recognize adolescence as a developmental phase distinct from both childhood and adulthood This awareness however came fraught with anxiety about the debilitating effects of modern life on adolescents of both sexes For boys competitive sports as well as primitive outdoor activities offered by fledgling organizations such as the Boy Scouts would enable them to combat the effeminacy of an overly civilized society But for girls the remedy wasn't quite so clear Surprisingly the girl problem a crisis caused by the transition from a sheltered family centered Victorian childhood to modern adolescence where self control and a strong democratic spirit were required of reliable citizens was also solved by way of traditionally masculine adventurous outdoor activities as practiced by the Girl Scouts the Camp Fire Girls and many other similar organizations Susan A Miller explores these girls organizations that sprung up in the first half of the twentieth century from a socio historical perspective showing how the notions of uniform identity civic duty primitive domesticity and fitness shaped the formation of the modern girl The Office ,1976 National Bulletin of Charities and Correction National Conference on Social Welfare,1956 The American Journal of Occupational Therapy ,1957 The Foundation Center Source Book Profiles Foundation Center,1986 The Foundation Directory 2004 Edition David G.
