Lew, 2016-07-01 Long remembered chiefly for its modernist exhibitions on the South Bank in London the 1951 Festival of Britain also showcased British artistic creativity in all its forms In Tonic to the Nation Nathaniel G Lew tells the story of the English classical music and opera composed and revived for the Festival and explores how these long overlooked components of the Festival helped define English music in the post war period Drawing on a wealth of archival material Lew looks closely at the work of the newly chartered Arts Council of Great Britain for whom the Festival of Britain provided the first chance to assert its authority over British culture The Arts Council devised many musical programs for the Festival including commissions of new concert works a vast London Season of almost 200 concerts highlighting seven centuries of English musical creativity and several schemes to commission and perform new operas These projects were not merely directed at bringing audiences to hear new and old national music but to share broader goals of framing the national repertory negotiating between the conflicting demands of conservative and progressive tastes and using music to forge new national definitions in a changed post war world      A Companion to

Folklore Regina F. Bendix, Galit Hasan-Rokem, 2014-08-25 A Companion to Folklore contains an original and comprehensive set of essays from international experts in the field of folklore studies This state of the art collection uniquely displays the vitality of folklore research across the globe The Companion covers four main areas the first section engages with the practices and theoretical approaches developed to understand the phenomena of folklore the second discusses the distinctive shapes that folklore studies have taken in different locations in time and space the third examines the interaction of folklore with various media as well as folklore's commoditization In the final section on practice essays offer insights into how folklorists work what they do and ways in which they have institutionalized their field Throughout contributors investigate the interplay of folklore and folkloristics in both academic and political arenas they evaluate key issues in the folk life of communities from around the world including China post communist Russia post colonial India South America Israel and Japan The result is a unique reflection and understanding of the profoundly different research histories and current perspectives on international research in the field

Her Majesty's Pleasure Frank Van Straten, 2013 This unique book raises the curtain on the history of Adelaide's most remarkable playhouse Her Majesty's Theatre For 100 years the Maj has hosted a cavalcade of entertainment With a treasure trove of rare photographs posters and costume and set designs this book will delight anyone who loves show business and who loves Adelaide

Accessibility, Inclusion, and Diversity in Critical Event Studies Rebecca Finkel, Briony Sharp, Majella Sweeney, 2018-09-14 Most early social research into planned events had the effect of broadcasting narratives of dominant cultures and privileged groups More recently however convergences of gender sexualities ethnicities age class religion and intersectional analyses and events studies have started to drive new critical understanding of the impacts of events on non mainstream non majority communities around the globe This timely book addresses current gaps in the literature surrounding issues of accessibility inclusion and diversity in various event landscapes Structured into four parts covering the main types of events the chapters present original topics using innovative methodological approaches Each chapter employs a case study to illustrate the key intertwining issues in these various experiential realms Further the chapters are all cross or interdisciplinary drawing on gender sexualities cultural race ethnicity studies as well as multiple literatures that feed into critical events studies and exploring a variety of global examples This significant book opens the path to further research on the role and importance of accessibility inclusion and diversity in events environments worldwide It will be of interest to academics and researchers of critical event studies as well as a number of related social science disciplines

With and Against Dominique Routhier, 2023-10-24 The little known story of the Situationist International's struggle against the automation of everyday life No other art movement has so profoundly influenced radical politics as the Situationist International But beyond the clichés about its purported leader Guy Debord the society of the spectacle d tournament and d rive lies a more complex story about key historical shifts in the composition of capital work labor art and revolutionary theory during the 1950s and 60s With and Against reframes the history of the Situationist International as a struggle to come to terms with the then emerging ideologies of cybernetics and automation Through each of the book's four chapters Dominique Routhier dissects Situationist pamphlets documents artworks and objects that refract elements of a cybernetic hypothesis the theoretically hyperbolic belief that technological progress computers and automation make class struggle and the idea of revolution obsolete With equal attention to aesthetic detail and to the broader contours of political economy this book serves as a critical intervention in art history as well a call to reconsider more broadly the contemporary lessons of the most political of all artistic avantgardes The Festival Cities of Edinburgh and Adelaide Sarah Thomasson,2022-08-20 The Festival Cities of Edinburgh and Adelaide examines how these cities world famous arts events have shaped and been shaped by their long term interaction with their urban environments While the Edinburgh International Festival and Adelaide Festival are long established prestigious events that champion artistic excellence they are also accompanied by the two largest open access fringe festivals in the world It is this simultaneous staging of multiple events within Edinburgh's Summer Festivals and Adelaide's Mad March that generates the visibility and festive atmosphere popularly associated with both places Drawing on perspectives from theatre studies and cultural geography this book interrogates how the Festival City as a place myth has developed in the very different local contexts of Edinburgh and Adelaide and how it is challenged by groups competing for the right to use and define public space Each chapter examines a recent performative event in which festival debates and controversies spilled out beyond the festival space to activate the public sphere by intersecting with broader concerns and audiences This book forges an interdisciplinary comparative framework for festival studies to interrogate how festivals are embedded in the social and political fabric of cities and to assess the cultural impact of the festivalisation phenomenon Event Audiences and Expectations Jo Mackellar,2013-08-29 Event Audiences and Expectations for the first time examines why people participate in festivals and events the types of events which stimulate participation and the fanatical antics of fans who become involved in these events By doing so the book offers significant insight into how event managers can entice and manage participant expectations as well as manage audience involvement The book is based on primary research using participant observation as well as in depth interviews with event participants event managers and government officials involved in over 50 international events to gain new perspectives into audience behaviour and participatory events Using numerous international case studies and examples the book offers a comprehensive outline of the reasons why people participate in festivals and events the social world that reinforces their behaviours and strategies that can be used to ensure future successful participatory events This thought provoking and original volume will be valuable reading for students researchers events managers and tourism and community planners at all levels of government ARTPOOL - The Experimental Art Archive of East-Central Europe György Galántai,Julia Klaniczay,2013-10-03 This volume is a collection of texts and documents selected from and illustrating the history of Artpool a non profit artist run institution in Budapest established in 1979 by György Gal

ntai and J lia Klaniczay and operating since 1992 under the name of Artpool Art Research Center The book focuses on Artpool's direct antecedents among them the events at Gyrgy Galntai's Chapel Studio in Balatonboglár 1970-1973 on the foundation development art projects and events as well as the preferences and issues pertaining to art research not independent of the historical and social environment they were conceived in that had formed throughout the course of many years and decades The occasion of the publication of ARTPOOL The Experimental Art Archive of East Central Europe is a milestone in the history of art for its documentation of a remarkable period in the chronicles of conceptual performance installation and video art as well as ephemeral mediums such as mail art and artists' stamp sheets postcards rubber stamp imprints artists' writings and samizdat publications The work represented in the Artpool archive is astonishing in its scope and quantity quality of imagination intellectual force and the courage of the artists who created it This volume presents an opportunity to reflect on the events that brought Artpool into being to acknowledge that while originating in the context of East Central Europe Artpool's community has always been international and to evaluate its broad contributions to world culture and society

Kristine Stiles     The Oxford Handbook of Community Music Brydie-Leigh Bartleet, Lee Higgins, 2018-02-01 Community music as a field of practice pedagogy and research has come of age The past decade has witnessed an exponential growth in practices courses programs and research in communities and classrooms and within the organizations dedicated to the subject The Oxford Handbook of Community Music gives an authoritative and comprehensive review of what has been achieved in the field to date and what might be expected in the future This Handbook addresses community music through five focused lenses contexts transformations politics intersections and education It not only captures the vibrant dynamic and divergent approaches that now characterize the field but also charts the new and emerging contexts practices pedagogies and research approaches that will define it in the coming decades The contributors to this Handbook outline community music's common values that center on social justice human rights cultural democracy participation and hospitality from a range of different cultural contexts and perspectives As such The Oxford Handbook of Community Music provides a snapshot of what has become a truly global phenomenon

Art and Politics Sarah Jennings, 2019-10-17 The year 2019 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the National Arts Centre In this new and revised edition of Art and Politics Sarah Jennings covers the highs and lows of Canada's most important national performing arts institution over the course of five decades bringing the story up to the present Art and Politics is a riveting tale of Canada's finest musicians actors and dancers and efforts to put their art at the forefront of both the national and the international scene Through over 150 interviews with artists top officials senior politicians and others who affected the fate of the National Arts Centre the book recounts the organization's early years the impact of government monies first lavished and then withdrawn which resulted in its near collapse in the late 1990s and how over the past two decades its CEO Peter Herrndorf a gifted leader has brought it back from the brink The most recent transformations revealed by this new edition include the architectural makeover of the organization's brutalist style building in Ottawa responses to the changing cultural milieu in Canada and the launch of a national Indigenous Theatre Department in the fall of 2019 Told through the voices of those who created the organization Art and Politics affirms that the National Arts Centre embodies its motto Canada is our stage Performing Contemporary Indonesia ,2015-02-04 Performance events have long had a central place in Indonesian societies in displaying power affirming social relations celebrating shared values and at times conveying potent political critique How have they responded to the momentous social and political changes of recent years the dismantling of the centralised authoritarian Suharto regime and its replacement with a more open regionally focused political system the rapid expansion of global cultural influence Investigations of diverse performance genres from different regions illustrate the way general socio political processes play out locally and how particular groups are responding Exploring performed understandings of identity and community such studies expand knowledge of a complex contested period of change in Indonesia and the workings of contemporary performance in giving it expression With contributions by Chua Beng Huat Alexandra Crosby Barbara Hatley Ariel Heryanto Brett Hough Rachmah Ida Reza Idria Edwin Jurriens Yoshi Fajar Kresno Murti Neneng Yanti K Lahpan Ugoran Prasad Wawan Sofwan Aline Scott Maxwell Fridus Steijlen Alia Swastika Denise Varney Finding Nothing Gregory Betts,2021-07-30 Experimental literature accelerated dramatically in Vancouver in the 1960s as the influence of New American poetics merged with the ideas of Marshall McLuhan Vancouver poets and artists began thinking about their creative works with new clarity and set about testing and redefining the boundaries of literature As new gardes in Vancouver explored the limits of text and language some writers began incorporating collage and concrete poetics into their work while others delved deeper into unsettling revolutionary and Surrealist imagery There was a presumption across the avant garde communities that radical openness could provoke widespread socio political change In other words the intermedia experimentation and the related destruction of the line between art and society pushed art to the frontlines of a broad socio political battle of the collective imagination of Vancouver Finding Nothing traces the rise of the radical avant garde in Vancouver from the initial salvos of the Tish group through Blewointment s spatial experiments to radical Surrealisms and new feminisms Incorporating images original texts and interviews Gregory Betts shows how the VanGardes signalled a remarkable consciousness of the globalized forces at play in the city impacting communities orientations races and nations Festivals as Reparative Gender Politics Zorica Siročić,2023-08-18 What explains the popularity and widespread appeal of numerous post Yugoslav feminist and LGBTQ festivals in the last decade This book argues that the millennial generation expresses reparative politics as a distinct type of activism through festivals Reparative political acting as identified here characteristically relies on playfulness and creativity interpretative gender dissent acceptance of organizational and programmatic messiness and hybridity belonging and positive affect The reparative politics is vital in a context that is marked by an individual and collective trauma of heteropatriarchy violent breakdown of the common state and post transitional economic precarity The book uses excerpts from programs interviews and observations collected through the multi sited ethnographic research Siro i s focus on contemporary activism in Southeastern Europe challenges the narrow geopolitical understanding of the recent feminist politics and refutes the common assumptions of a passive millennial generation Yet the book s relevance surpasses its area of study as it argues against the popular deriding of activist expressions as the merely cultural or merely aesthetic engagement In contrast the book claims that such activities urge a redefined understanding of political agency Festivals as Reparative Politics demonstrates that contemporary feminist festivals represent a distinct reformulation of contentious politics of gender whose constitutive principles can be exemplary for other types of political engagements Public Culture, Cultural Identity, Cultural Policy Kevin V. Mulcahy, 2016-11-21 This book places the study of public support for the arts and culture within the prism of public policy making It is explicitly comparative in casting cultural policy within a broad sociopolitical and historical framework Given the complexity of national communities there has been an absence of comparative analyses that would explain the wide variability in modes of cultural policy as reflections of public cultures and cultural identity The discussion is internationally focused and interdisciplinary Mulcahy contextualizes a wide variety of cultural policies and their relation to politics and identity by asking a basic question who gets their heritage valorized and by whom is this done The fundamental assumption is that culture is at the heart of public policy as it defines national identity and personal value

Billboard, 2004-09-04 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends The funding of science and discovery centres Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Science and Technology Committee, 2007-10-22 Examines the role and effectiveness of science centres how science centres are co ordinated and organised and how they are funded This report also welcomes the offer by the Department for Innovation Universities and Skills to take responsibility for science centres The Cool Factor Del Breckenfeld, 2008-12-03 What is cool Who knows But there is one thing every marketer does know nothing increases sales like cool does In The Cool Factor Del Breckenfeld a long time marketer at Fender Musical Instruments Corp presents an inside look at how Fender became the coolest name in musical instruments and how marketers at Fender partnered with cool products musicians and events to up their cool factor even more If you re a marketer The Cool Factor offers lessons for keeping your brand on top Collaborative Conversations Sara Matchett, 2021-10-13 To celebrate Mothertongue s 21st anniversary Collaborative Conversations weaves together the reflections of a group of artists scholars and writers who have journeyed with the organisation over the last two decades Since its inception in 2000 with What the Water Gave Me The Mothertongue Project has used participatory integrated arts methods to create theatrical works that strive for personal and collective dialogue and healing in South Africa In poetry scholarly writing and transcribed oral conversations the contributors now think and feel their way through the aspirations and achievements and the alchemy of The Mothertongue Project's work Accompanied by photographs of performances from across the 21 years this book provides a sense of what a Mothertongue theatre piece does it draws audience and performers into transformative embodied conversations Includes work by Awino Okech Genna Gardini Koleka Putuma Makgati Mokwena Malika Ndlovu Mwenya B Kabwe Nicosia Shakes Nina Callaghan Ntomboxolo Makhutshi and Rehane Abrahams
