COMMITMENT TO PRIVACY

We understand that your medical and health information is private and personal. In our best effort to provide quality care and to comply with applicable laws and other legal requirements, we create a record of the services you receive from providers in our practice. Your record consists of personal information about you and your health. Protected Health Information, or PHI, is information about you and the care you receive to identify you as it relates to your past, present, or future health and related health services.

This notice of privacy describes how we may use and disclose your PHI to carry out our treatment, payment, health care operations, or other purposes permitted or required by law. This notice also describes your rights to access and control your protected health information.

We will always be 100% committed to maintaining your confidentiality and the records we keep. We will only release your healthcare information in accordance with state or federal law and the ethical standards of the counseling profession.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF YOUR INFORMATION

In this section, we will review the uses and disclosures of your private health information.

Treatment:

Your PHI may be used and disclosed by those involved in your care with the purpose of providing, coordinating, or managing your health care treatment or related services, such as: clinical supervisors, care specialists, and other treatment team members. We may also disclose PHI to any other consultant only with your authorization.

Payment:

Your PHI will be used as needed to obtain payment for your health care services.

Healthcare Operations:

We may need to use information about you to review or support our treatment procedures and business activity. Your information may be used for certification, compliance, and/or licensing activities. For example, we may share your PHI with 3rd party billing companies, provided that we have a contract in place with the business to safeguard the privacy of our clients' PHI.
