Reading, Writing, and Thinking Paul L. Thomas, Joe Kincheloe, 2006-01-01 In a world gone mad with standardized curricula and the degradation of the profession of teaching P L Thomas and Joe Kincheloe attempt to bring sanity back to the discussion of the teaching of some of the basic features of the educational process In Reading Writing and Thinking The Postformal Basics the authors take on the rational irrationality of current imperial pedagogical practices providing readers with provocative insights into the bizarre assumptions surrounding the contemporary teaching of reading writing and thinking The authors are obsessed with producing an accessible book for multiple audiences parents teachers scholars of education that moves beyond critique to a new domain of the social and educational imagination Readers of Thomas and Kincheloe s book embark on a mind trip beginning with what is and moving to the realm of what could be In this context they introduce readers to a critical theory of thinking postformalism that moves the social and educational conversation to a new terrain of individual and social consciousness Tired of the same educational policies and solutions in the teaching of reading writing and thinking the authors become socio psychic explorers who move readers past the boundaries of contemporary pedagogical perception Handbook of School Counseling Hardin L.K. Coleman,Christine Yeh,2011-04-06 The mission of this forty eight chapter Handbook is to provide a comprehensive reference source that integrates counseling theory research and practice into one volume It is designed to meet the needs of entry level practitioners from their initial placement in schools through their first three to five years of practice It will also be of interest to experienced school counselors counselor educators school researchers and counseling representatives within state and local governments 100 Days Smart Karin Tramm,2023-02-21 Karin Tramm s kindergarten class at DoDEA Vicenza Elementary School on Caserma Ederle Army Base Italy was counting up to a magic day the 100th day of school when students would be 100 days smart Mrs Tramm is that the last day of school a child asked Goodness no there are a lot of numbers bigger than one hundred Mrs Tramm explained and we will be in school for many more days after the hundredth day But then on February 21 2020 the 100th day of school COVID 19 changed everything From empty classrooms to kindergarten in the kitchen teachers parents and students navigated uncharted waters as their world locked down in the epicenter of the Italian outbreak For the next 100 days residents of Vicenza learned to find joy in simplicity country living and community In diary form 100 Days Smart highlights their resilience recognizing and remembering the fears and frustrations humor and humanity of shared experiences on a new path forward Off the Clock Fred Bramante,Rose Colby,2012-03-14 How to base learning on mastery instead of time What if you could remove time and space pressures from the process of teaching and learning The authors of Off the Clock not only suggest this but they have implemented it in New Hampshire Due in part to their work the New England Consortium won the 2011 Frank Newman Award for State Innovation through the Education Commission of the States This book s core idea is that student achievement should be based on mastering competencies instead of seat time In addition learning does not need to be restricted to a school building or traditional school calendar Fred Bramante and Rose Colby describe a uniquely 21st century learning environment in which Every student is engaged Parents and students have more control over learning Dropouts are all but eliminated Curriculum becomes virtually limitless project based and interdisciplinary This text for educators policymakers parents and community members provides a comprehensive approach to implementing a large scale competency based reform initiative Wherever this model is applied public education will be vastly improved more efficient and quite possibly less expensive The ultimate beneficiaries will be our nation's children Teaching in the Middle and Secondary Schools Richard Dean Kellough, Joanna Carjuzaa, 2006 Teaching in the Middle and Secondary Schools 8e is a highly practical book for teachers in middle school and secondary schools Teachers will find practical classroom applications for planning instruction selecting and using instructional strategies and assessment Its modular format includes exercises and post tests in each module Inservice Teachers in Middle and Secondary Schools Culture and Environment, 2019-07-01 The inspiration for this book arose out of a large international conference the ninth World Environmental Education Congress WEEC organized under the theme of Culture Environment Similarly the theme for this book focuses on the Culture Environment nexus The book is divided into two parts Part 1 consists of a series of research studies from an eclectic selection of researchers from all corners of the globe Part 2 consists of a series of case studies of practice selected from a wide diversity of K Postsecondary educators The intent behind these selections is to augment and highlight the diversity of both cultural method and cultural voice in our descriptions of environmental education practice The chapters focus on a multi disciplinary view of Environmental Education with a developing view that Culture and Environment may be inseparable and arise from and within each other Cultural change is also a necessary condition and a requirement to rebuild and reinvent our relationship with nature and to live more sustainably The chapters address the spirit of supporting our praxis and are therefore directed towards both an educator and researcher audience Each chapter describes original research or curriculum development work
