Temporary Heroes Lieutenant Norman Cecil Down:

Temporary Heroes Richard van Emden, 2014-07-31 This is a short book based on the letters written between 1915 and 1916 by an officer serving with the 1 4th Gordon Highlanders Second Lieutenant Down wrote regularly to his girlfriend fiancée throughout his time in France letters which were published in 1917 after he was wounded and discharged from the army Cecil Down is a superb writer but more than that he has a natural wit that translates easily to the page making this one of the most enjoyable books I have read on the war I have chosen this book because it is so different from anything else I have read He captures life in France with great accuracy while remaining steadfastly upbeat and humorous Nevertheless there are moments when he is serious and that makes his words poignant and attention grabbing Norman went to France in February 1915 serving continuously until July 1916 He died on 14 March 1984 aged 91 Temporary Heroes Norman Cecil Down, 2014 First published in Great Britain in 1917 by the Bodley Head Verso title page Temporary Heroes

[Illustrated Edition] Captain Norman Cecil Sommers Down, 2014-08-15 Includes The First World War On The Somme Illustration Pack 110 photos and illustrations and 31 maps This book published in 1917 was compiled from letters written to his fiancée while serving in France and Belgium February 1915 to July 1916 with the 1 4th Gordon Highlanders Down was commissioned into the Gordon Highlanders a Territorial Battalion in September 1914 and they formed part of the 8th Brigade 3rd Division in Belgium in 1915 The Battalion served mainly in the Ypres Salient throughout 1915 and Down's letters contain vivid accounts of the actions in which they took part pp 52 60 pp 75 80 For prolonged periods they were in the front line and despite the humour of Down's letters the appalling conditions and experiences come through clearly His style of writing is lively and very easy to read and his accounts of life in the trenches and particularly in rest camp are witty and entertaining He particularly brings irreverent wit to bear on the brass hats pp 98 104 comments which were almost always censored in the published version The battalion greatly appreciated a spell in front line trenches opposite a Saxon battalion where a semi truce had been unofficially p 84 declared but on the whole the battalion suffered particularly from the weather Down spent several months as bombing officer to the 8th Brigade becoming one of the brass hats p 117 and he remained with 8th Brigade after the Gordon Highlanders transferred to form part of the 51st Highland Division In April 1916 the 51st moved to the Somme and Down rejoined his own battalion there briefly before being posted to a month's course at the Infantry School from which he witnessed the progress of the Big Push p 231 Down was wounded in late July during the Offensive and returned to hospital in England IWM Searching for Pop Michael R. Brookbank, 2018-08-21 At the age of 43 Thomas Brookbank volunteered to join the army in September 1914 just weeks after the start of the war and when the wounded from the first encounters with the German army at Mons and Le Cateau were arriving back in England There was nothing special about Tom Brookbank He was a painter and a decorator by trade but he was swept along in the surge of patriotism that drove hundreds of thousands of ordinary men and women to respond to the Kitchener's call for the raising of a great volunteer army an enterprise that most military men of the time friend and foe alike regarded as a ludicrous waste of time and money This much was known by family legend together with knowledge that he had gone to Italy in November 1917 with the 41st Division in response to the near collapse of the Italian army at Caporetto that he ended the war in Belgium with this Division Tom Brookbank need not have volunteered at all He was too old to be fighting a soldier and was well over the age group that Kitchener was calling for but there was also a need for men in the support services behind the lines the men of the Army Services Corps and this is where Tom Brookbank and fellow men like him ended up Early research showed that he did not start the war with the 41st Division so what happened to him what did he do and where did he go Searching for Pop is the story of a grandson s search for the answers to what he did and where he went between the time he volunteered and his discharge at the end of the war It illustrates what might be achieved from a very limited amount of initial knowledge by perseverance and the use of the records available in National Archives
