Unfinished Business Tamim Bayoumi, 2017-09-19 A penetrating critique tracing how under regulated trading between European and U S banks led to the 2008 financial crisis with a prescription for preventing another meltdown There have been numerous books examining the 2008 financial crisis from either a U S or European perspective Tamim Bayoumi is the first to explain how the Euro crisis and U S housing crash were in fact parasitically intertwined Starting in the 1980s Bayoumi outlines the cumulative policy errors that undermined the stability of both the European and U S financial sectors highlighting the catalytic role played by European mega banks that exploited lax regulation to expand into the U S market and financed unsustainable bubbles on both continents U S banks increasingly sold sub par loans to under regulated European and U S shadow banks and when the bubbles burst the losses whipsawed back to the core of the European banking system A much needed fresh look at the origins of the crisis Bayoumi s analysis concludes that policy makers are ignorant of what still needs to be done both to complete the cleanup and to prevent future crises

Enlightenment and Ecology Tarinski Yavor Tarinski, 2021-02-20 Throughout his life prophetic American philosopher Murray Bookchin created social ecology as a comprehensive social program for the challenges of our present era Through tireless teaching speaking organizing and writing Bookchin presented a humanist vision of ecology based on community direct democracy and the better promises of the Enlightenment showing how we could transform our society into one that is free and egalitarian Enlightenment and Ecology is an international collection of commemorative essays by scholars and activists who have each incorporated the ideas of social ecology into their own work This book also examines how the Kurdish freedom movement is using the Bookchin s utopian ideas In a time of urgent need for radical change these essays provide both precious historical lessons and a transformative road map

Middle Powers and Regional Influence Joshua B. Spero, 2018-11-16 In the growing literature on middle powers this book contributes by expanding case study analysis and extending international relations theory in its application to foreign policy decisions Thus this book builds on prominent middle power literature and aims to advance our theoretical understanding for why crucial foreign policies were made by the pivotal middle powers this book examines Poland South Korea and Bolivia For this book s three case studies and their first term leadership s critical junctures from first term post communist Poland post authoritarian post ruling party South Korea and post colonial Bolivia we have the antecedents for contemporary middle powers essential for realizing the regional evolution for cooperative change with greater powers systemically we may then grasp today why those historical foreign policies albeit not so long ago give us crucial antecedents for adapting and trying yet again to resolve seemingly perennial power dilemmas regionally peacefully Here are why middle power impact matters not only regionally for stronger dominant greater power neighbours but also for transformative middle power leaderships which proved pivotal geopolitically for their region's challenges and changes World Intellectual Property Report 2024 World Intellectual Property Organization, 2024-05-02 Combining economic analysis with in depth industry studies the 2024 edition of the World Intellectual Property Report introduces a new data driven methodology designed to help policymakers make informed decisions by leveraging existing local innovation capabilities and strengthen their national innovation ecosystems Complementing this framework are three case studies across the agriculture technology motorcycle and video game industries spanning eight different countries These studies demonstrate how countries have successfully carved out specialized trajectories within innovative and complex industries The Bookseller , 1902 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series Socio-Spatial Dynamics in Mediterranean Europe José María Feria-Toribio, Ricardo Iglesias-Pascual, Federico Benassi, 2024-05-21 This book analyses the most recent socio territorial trends that are developing in the Spanish metropolitan space The first part focuses on the most recent metropolitan dynamics and demographic changes in Southern Europe The second part discusses the most important processes in metropolitan areas the problems of increasing social and residential vulnerability and the problems of diversity management The third part analyses some concrete cases of the main changes and complexity in the spatial dynamics of metropolitan areas in Southern Europe Finally the fourth and last part provides an overview on the instruments and the resources put in place by some Southern European cities for the development of governance and citizen participation as an instrument of reaction to the social economic and COVID crisis By discussing the main changes and uncertainties derived from the social scenarios after the pandemic the dynamics of social dualisation of the city as well as the necessary instruments for its analysis and the main challenges in urban governance with special attention of Southern European context this book provides an interesting read for spatial demographers human geographers social scientists and spatial planners Foundations of Education Leslie S. Against the Seas Mary Soderstrom,2023-02-28 An incredible read While unflinching in her analysis Soderstrom nevertheless gifts us with a message of hope and resilience MAUDE BARLOW activist and author of Still Hopeful Lessons from a Lifetime of Activism What can we learn about coping with rising sea levels from ancient times The scenario we are facing is scary within a few decades sea levels around the world may well rise by a metre or more as glaciers and ice caps melt due to climate change Large parts of our coastal cities will be flooded the basic outline of our world will be changed and torrential rains will present their own challenges But this is not the first time that people have had to cope with threatening waters because sea levels have been rising for thousands of years ever since the end of the last Ice Age Stories told by the Indigenous people in Australia and on the Pacific coast of North America and those found in the Bible and the Epic of Gilgamesh as well as Roman and Chinese histories all bear witness to just how traumatic these experiences were The responses to these challenges varied people adapted by building dikes canals and seawalls by resorting to prayer or magic and very often by moving out of the way of the rushing waters Against the Seas explores these stories as well as the various measures being taken today to combat rising waters focusing on five regions Indonesia Shanghai the Sundarbans of Bangladesh the Salish Sea and the estuary of the St Lawrence River What happened in the past and what is being tried today may help us in the future and if nothing else give us hope that we will survive

Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Akwasi Owusu-Bempah,Shaun Gabbidon,2020-09-24 Race Ethnicity Crime and Justice An International Dilemma Second Edition takes a unique comparative approach to the exploration of race and ethnicity related justice issues in five countries around the world Using the colonial model as a theoretical lens Owusu Bempah and Gabbidon

analyse data from Great Britain the United States Canada Australia and South Africa These international case studies help students contextualize race and justice issues within and across nations Concise historical framing illuminates today's racial dynamics in these diverse justice systems and accessible theory grounds the comparison of crime and justice data from the early 21st century with current statistics A new concluding chapter revisits the question of where these nations fit in the global context of state and non state actors and of ethnic and racial justice issues This new edition is suitable for use as a core or supplemental text for advanced undergraduates and early graduate courses on race and crime minorities and criminal justice diversity in criminal justice and comparative justice systems It is also appropriate for use in sociology and ethnic studies courses that focus on race and crime

Governing Asian International Mobility in Australia Xianlin Song, Greg McCarthy, 2019-08-12 This book examines the governance of Asian student and academic mobility which has transformed the higher education landscape While campuses are experiencing an unprecedented level of diversity knowledge creation remains explicitly Eurocentric and dominated by the Global North The authors advocate for a new educational paradigm that takes into account the transcultural flow of knowledge on campus as a public good capitalises on Asian students and academics multilingual competencies and offers them equal access to creating quality orientated education The book argues that international higher education must be grounded in both a plurality of knowledges and the ethics of cognitive justice and that the governing policies should facilitate the higher education sector to build a platform of internationalising affect and effect on campus

The Doctor Who Wasn't There Jeremy A. Greene, 2022-10-26 This gripping history shows how the electronic devices we use to access care influence the kind of care we receive The Doctor Who Wasn't There traces the long arc of enthusiasm for and skepticism of electronic media in health and medicine Over the past century a series of new technologies promised to democratize access to healthcare From the humble telephone to the connected smartphone from FM radio to wireless wearables from cable television to the electronic brains of networked mainframe computers each new platform has promised a radical reformation of the healthcare landscape With equal attention to the history of technology the history of medicine and the politics and economics of American healthcare physician and historian Jeremy A Greene explores the role that electronic media play for better and for worse in the past present and future of our health Today's telehealth devices are far more sophisticated than the hook and ringer telephones of the 1920s the radios that broadcasted health data in the 1940s the closed circuit televisions that enabled telemedicine in the 1950s or the online systems that created electronic medical records in the 1960s But the ethical economic and logistical concerns they raise are prefigured in the past as are the gaps between what was promised and what was delivered Each of these platforms also produced subtle transformations in health and healthcare that we have learned to forget displaced by promises of ever newer forms of communication that took their place Illuminating the social and technical contexts in which electronic medicine has been conceived and put into practice Greene's history shows the urgent stakes then and now for those who would seek in new media the means to build a more equitable future for American healthcare From Saline to Freshwater Scott W. Starratt, Michael R. Rosen, 2021-12-23 In the latter half of the twentieth century lakes and lacustrine deposit systems were recognized as outstanding examples of depositional systems serving as models with global applications many may serve as harbingers of environmental change The chapters explore environmental variability sedimentary processes fire history the impact of lakes on crustal flexure and abrupt climate events in arid regions often through the application of new tools and proxies The Emerald International Handbook of Technology-Facilitated Violence and Abuse Jane Bailey, Asher Flynn, Nicola Henry, 2021-06-04 The ebook edition of this title is Open Access and freely available to read online This handbook features theoretical empirical policy and legal analysis of technology facilitated violence and abuse TFVA from over 40 multidisciplinary scholars practitioners advocates survivors and technologists from 17 countries Financial and Trade Globalization, Greener Technologies and Energy Transition Magdalena Radulescu, Enzo Barberio Mariano, Umer Shahzad, Diogo Ferraz, 2023-02-09 Population Index, 1979 Annotated bibliography covering books journal articles working papers and other material on topics in population and demography The College Handbook, 1988

Deepening the EU-China Partnership Mario Telò, Ding Chun, Zhang Xiaotong, 2017-11-14 The China EC EU relationship started in 1975 is a highly institutionalized multidimensional and complex but to some extent controversial international partnership It is also challenged within the current unstable world This book addresses the convergences and the differences ideational political institutional and interests related between China and the EU by a collective interaction between Chinese and European scholars Among other things the book assesses sectoral bilateral dialogue and focuses on the interplay between internal complexity and external policies discusses ideational divergences in international law and rule of law and in many relevant policy fields Furthermore it compares sustainable growth policies explores trade and investment controversies and negotiations human rights dialogue and addresses environment and climate change policies This text will be of key interest to EU studies and politics China studies and more broadly to area Asian studies and international relations global governance
