Wanderlust Magazine The American Travellers' Guides William Pembroke Fetridge, 1884 Journals Herman Melville, Howard C. Horsford, Lynn Horth, 1989. This volume presents Melville's three known journals. Unlike his contemporaries Emerson, Thoreau and Hawthorne, Melville kept no habitual record of his days and thoughts; each of his three journals records his actions and observations on trips far from home. In this edition's Historical Note, Howard C. Horsford places each of the journals in the context of Melville's career, discusses its general character and points out the later literary uses he made of it, notably in Moby Dick, Clarel and his magazine pieces. The editors supply full annotations of Melville's allusions and terse entries and an exhaustive index makes available the range of his acquaintance with people, places and works of art. Also included are related documents, illustrations, maps and many pages and passages reproduced from the journals. This scholarly edition aims to present a text as close to the author's intention as his difficult handwriting permits. It is an Approved Text of the Center for Editions of American Authors. Modern Language Association of America.
