Manual for organizing youth consultations: Together towards a global deal for nature and people, 2019-08-27 All over the world young people are demanding action to protect our planet In 2020 a new global deal for nature and people will be adopted setting targets for the protection and conservation of the planet's biodiversity and ecosystems It is of crucial importance that the voices of young people are heard when these new targets are set as this will affect not only the present generation but also future generations and their livelihoods In the Nordic Region we want to make sure that the voices of the young people will be heard and therefore we have developed this toolkit for involving young people in setting new targets for the protection and sustainable use of biodiversity and ecosystems thereby securing a new global deal for nature and people The toolkit is made available to young people and those who want to engage young people in the development of a new global deal for nature and people Anyone who wishes to arrange facilitate and engage in youth consultations is invited to use the toolkit The results can be communicated to decision makers the public and other relevant institutions and will be part of a bigger movement of youth around the world The aim is to support young people youth organisations and other interested groups in their facilitation of discussions on key issues relating to a new deal for nature and people and to ensure the credibility of the results from the youth workshop The Toolkit has been developed in close corporation with the Nordic Council and the Nordic Council of Ministers in close corporation with young people from the Nordic countries

Climate Change Adaptation Framework and Youth Entrepreneurship in West Africa Andrew Simmons, 2021-10-22 This book's purpose is to highlight the development challenges and successes of implementing the Youth Climate Change Adaptation Development Framework in Sierra Leone West Africa Over the past decade Sierra Leone has experienced a series of development challenges including internal conflict and Ebola outbreaks in most recent times The dire unemployment situation in Sierra Leone is compounded by the emergence of climate change that negatively impacts all aspects of daily life and wellbeing and the education and training provided do not prepare young people adequately for the job market Therefore building youth resilience to adapt to the impact of climate change and other development problems is a significant development challenge faced by policymakers in Sierra Leone The government through funding from the African Development Bank AfDB has provided support for the implementation of a

Youth Employment and Entrepreneurship Project YEPP to reinforce the employability of Sierra Leone Youth as well as enhance their entrepreneurship and employment skills through the development of a framework that integrates education and vocational institutions with job market demand and supply This approach has resulted in strengthening the occupational levels in the youth population segments of the country This book discusses the objectives and outcomes of this project including curricula for Sustainable Construction training of counselors and administrators providing youths with supervisory skills and developing tools to assess youth development institutions weaknesses and enhance institutional capacity to deliver climate change adaption for sustainable development programmes The book can be used by policymakers from Small Island Developing States SIDS and LDCs in Africa and Asia It can be used by researchers working on Climate Change Education Sustainable Development emphasising Climate Change Education for Sustainable Development in both developing and developed countries It can also be used by practitioners involved in implementing innovations in youth development employment entrepreneurship sustainable livelihoods initiatives climate change adaptation and mitigation These practitioners and researchers would find this book an invaluable resource to support their work in the field Federal Register ,2013

Endogenous Development Chiku Malunga,Susan Holcombe,2017-10-02 Western ideas worldviews actors tools models and frameworks have long dominated development theory and practice in Africa The resulting development interventions are too rarely locally rooted locally driven or resonant with local context At the same time theories and practices from developing countries rarely travel to the Western agencies dominating development undermining the possibility of a beneficial synergy that could be obtained from the best of both worlds There are many reasons why the experiences of locally driven development are not communicated back to global development actors including but not limited to the marginal role of Southern voices in global forums This volume gives a platform to authentic African voices and non African collaborators to explore what endogenous development means how it can be implemented and how an endogenous development approach can shape local national and global policies This book was originally published as a special issue of Development in Practice
