An alliteration poem uses words that begin with the same letter.

Black Bunny

The beautiful black bunny, bumped Betty the beagle,
 breaking her basket,
 bearing bread for the eagle.
 But before Betty began,
 taking trisky away,
 she saw that black bunny
 blowing bubbles by the bay.

Brainstorm and Planning

Choose an animal. Brainstorm as words to describe the animal that start with the same letter as the animal's name. Think about what the animal looks like, how it moves, what it eats, and where it lives.

Animal:

Letter:

adjectives (describing words)	verbs (people, places, things)	verbs (action words)

Alliteration Poem

Written by: _____

Use your brainstorm to write a simple alliteration poem about your chosen animal. See if you can write four words at the start of each line.

Be sure to write out a rhyming pattern before you begin. A nice rhyming pattern for beginning is ABAB. This means that lines 2 and 4 at the end rhyme, and lines 1 and 3 do too.

Meter and Modernity in English Verse, 1350-1650 Eric Weiskott, 2021-01-15 What would English literary history look like if the unit of measure were not the political reign but the poetic tradition The earliest poems in English were written in alliterative verse the meter of Beowulf Alliterative meter preceded tetrameter which first appeared in the twelfth century and tetrameter in turn preceded pentameter the five stress line that would become the dominant English verse form of modernity though it was invented by Chaucer in the 1380s While this chronology is accurate Eric Weiskott argues the traditional periodization of literature in modern scholarship distorts the meaning of meters as they appeared to early poets and readers In Meter and Modernity in English Verse 1350 1650 Weiskott examines the uses and misuses of these three meters as markers of literary time medieval or modern though all three were in concurrent use both before and after 1500 In each section of the book he considers two of the traditions through the prism of a third element alliterative meter and tetrameter in poems of political prophecy alliterative meter and pentameter in William Langland's Piers Plowman and early blank verse and tetrameter and pentameter in Chaucer his predecessors and his followers Reversing the historical perspective in which scholars conventionally view these authors Weiskott reveals Langland to be metrically precocious and Chaucer metrically nostalgic More than a history of prosody Weiskott's book challenges the divide between medieval and modern literature Rejecting the premise that modernity occurred as a specifiable event he uses metrical history to renegotiate the trajectories of English literary history and advances a narrative of sociocultural change that runs parallel to metrical change exploring the relationship between literary practice social placement and historical time
