Routledge Handbook of Subnational Constitutions and Constitutionalism Patricia Popelier, Giacomo Delledonne, Nicholas Aroney, 2021-09-21 This handbook provides a toolbox of definitions and typologies to develop a theory of multilevel constitutionalism and subnational constitutions The volume examines systems with subnational entities that have full subnational constituent autonomy and systems where subnational constituent powers while claimed by subnational governments are incomplete or non existent Understanding why complete subnational constituent power exists or is denied sheds significant light on the status and functioning of subnational constitutions The book deals with questions of how constitutions at multiple levels of a political system can co exist and interact The term multilevel constitutionalism recognized as explaining how a supranational European constitution can exist alongside those of the Member States is now used to capture dynamics between constitutions at the national subnational and where applicable supranational levels Broad in scope the book encompasses many different types of multi tiered systems world wide to map the possible meanings uses and challenges of subnational or state constitutions in a variety of political and societal contexts The book develops the building blocks of an explanatory theory of subnational constitutionalism and as such will be an essential reference for all those interested in comparative constitutional law federalism and governance

Smallholders and family farms in Albania - Country study report 2019 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations ,2020-06-01 The background for conducting country studies on the challenges needs and constraints of smallholders and family farms in seven countries has been a wish to further strengthen the Regional Initiative and develop the initiative towards a stronger programmatic approach at both the regional and country levels To provide support to smallholders and family farms there has been a need to develop a better understanding and knowledge platform of the main challenges needs and constraints of smallholders and family farms in the specific country context Even though many of the challenges are the same throughout the region there are still significant variations among the countries it is important to recognize and understand these variations when designing support to smallholders and family farms in each specific country It has been the objectives of the country studies first to analyze the development trend and current state of smallholders and family farms in the specific country second to study the current political priorities and policies affecting smallholders and family farms and finally based on the conclusions made to provide recommendations mainly at the policy level on how to further support the development of commercial family farms and at the same time ensure in general inclusive growth improved rural livelihood for women and men and the reduction of rural poverty for all It is hoped that each country study will not only be relevant for FAO but also for governments donors and other international organizations when formulating policy and preparing programmes

Department for International Development's bilateral support to primary education Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts,2010-12-23 The coalition Government has committed to increasing the Department for International Development s total aid spending from 7 8 billion in 2010 11 to 11 5 billion in 2014 15 The Department aims to improve and expand state primary education focusing on sub Saharan Africa and Asia It works largely by influencing and financing developing country governments to pursue Millennium Development Goals The Committee supports these aims but expresses concerns about its ability to assess the value for money of its spending Fourteen of the 22 countries the Department supports are on track to meet Millennium Development Goals for primary enrolment by 2015 The Committee also expresses concern that the Department cannot adequately attribute impacts to its spending and its influence Even for its largest programmes such as India it typically contributes a low proportion of the countries education spend For the Committee the Department needs to place value for money as the primary focus when allocating resources or assessing the performance of its education programmes It needs to focus on how many children attend and complete primary education along with the literacy and numeracy they achieve Reading the past, writing the future UNESCO,2017-04-10 Aucune information saisie Reporting Essentials for MicroStrategy Desktop
