News Inc Portland OR Now Vincent Lavoie,2003-01-01 While the crisis that took place in photojournalism during the 1960 s brought about a significant shift in the practices discourses and institutional structures of press photography it also affected the practices of artists specifically with regard to work devoted to revitalizing the depiction of events The art world attempted to revitalize the historical genre by undertaking its critical rereading in the spirit of restoring a tradition diminished by the mass media The problem may be expressed in these terms How can history be depicted bearing in mind that the media mainly photojournalism and the electronic press have claimed a monopoly of the genre unto themselves At issue is the sizeable problem of mass media omnipotence as an obligatory referential universe for historiographical artistic practices Today it seems impossible to depict the event in any way other than by accentuating or eschewing the formal attributes rhetorical artifices and ideological precepts of the mass media These approaches to addressing historical moments have been examined in this article both because they epitomize contemporary historical writing and for the most part they constitute critical responses to stereotyped depictions of events Above all they represent a paradigm shift the mass media s prerogatives for depicting historical moments has shifted towards the field of art Contemporary depictions of catastrophe crimes sensationalist news items terrorist attacks humanitarian disasters genocides common themes in many of the artistic projects represented in the 8th edition of the Mois de la Photo a Montreal have been especially striking in this respect For of all contemporary events catastrophes are the most likely to be spontaneously propelled to the top of the news roster and the most susceptible to the various inflections of contemporary art photography Removing Barriers to SME Access to International Markets OECD,2008-04-07 This book sheds light on facilitating SME internationalisation and also presents a synthesis of the Conference discussions and the main outcome of the Conference the Athens Action Plan for Removing Barriers to SME Access to International Markets Women in Management Worldwide Ronald J. Burke,Astrid M. Richardsen,2016-08-12 Organizations today are facing unprecedented challenges including an ageing workforce potential talent shortages an increasingly competitive international environment and the need to utilize the talents of the best qualified people regardless of gender More women than men in many cases are graduating from universities and gaining the requisite experience to qualify for advancement to higher levels of management In this expanded and revised third edition Professors Burke and Richardsen together with a list of international contributors address women s progression in the workforce and into the upper echelons of management They cover a range of professions and a geographically dispersed territory thereby advancing the understanding of women in management within a traditional context and making a substantial contribution to the literature for both an academic and practitioner audience The broader regional perspective offers a comprehensive overview of the challenges and opportunities facing women in the workplace and promotes the ongoing analysis of the interface between women s career aspirations and societal and organizational norms assumptions and values Following the same format as the previous edition the country by country analysis allows for the data between countries and regions to be compared for the differences to be addressed and a more holistic picture of the situation in a given country to be assessed Women in Management Worldwide will appeal to researchers policy makers in a range of countries interested in workforce issues talent management and gender equality as well as consultants working with international organizations on HRM and organizational effectiveness challenges Hypnotic Approaches in Cancer and Palliative Care Sylvain N ron, Daniel Handel, 2014-02-14T00:00:00-05:00 This patient centered and case based eBook is intended for health care professionals who use or may decide to use clinical hypnosis in their professional work with cancer patients With a personalized and flexible navigation system stimulating learning it provides direct access to patients experiences and to the comments and analyses of two specialists Each case features an original full session video recording and a full transcript of the session of real patients experiencing hypnosis focused on self regulation improvements pain relief palliation of symptoms and hope enhancement in the face of advanced or terminal cancer illness The reader is invited to use these recordings to examine and inform his her own practice and is encouraged to do such examination in an active and alert learning state He she will find several ways of incorporating hypnotic modalities at several points of the illness trajectory and in different contexts of the treatment continuum For example hypnosis will be observed in settings such as busy oncology clinics and at bedside as well as in the preparation and execution of medical and diagnostic procedures Hypnotherapy addressing existential and spiritual issues will also be presented This innovative eBook by putting emphasis on clinical relevance interactions and skill acquisition through demonstration provides a unique opportunity to identify hypnotic phenomena and to understand the necessary modifications of classical hypnotic strategies clinically relevant to illness progression and hospice care
