What's in a Word-list? Dr Dawn Archer, 2012-10-01

The frequency with which particular words are used in a text can tell us something meaningful both about that text and also about its author because their choice of words is seldom random Focusing on the most frequent lexical items of a number of generated word frequency lists can help us to determine whether all the texts are written by the same author Alternatively they might wish to determine whether the most frequent words of a given text captured by its word frequency list are suggestive of potentially meaningful patterns that could have been overlooked had the text been read manually This edited collection brings together cutting edge research written by leading experts in the field on the construction of word lists for the analysis of both frequency and keyword usage Taken together these papers provide a comprehensive and up to date survey of the most exciting research being conducted in this subject

Bonhoeffer's Religionless Christianity in Its Christological Context Peter Hooton, 2020-02-06

The German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer understood Western civilization to be approaching a completely religionless age to which Christians must respond and adapt This book explores Bonhoeffer's own response to this challenge his concept of a religionless Christianity and its place in his broader theology It does this first by situating the concept in a present day Western socio historical context It then considers Bonhoeffer's understanding and critique of religion before examining the religionless Christianity of his final months in the light of his earlier Christ centred theology The place of mystery paradox and wholeness in Bonhoeffer's thinking is also given careful attention and non religious interpretation is taken seriously as an ongoing task The book aspires to present religionless Christianity as a lucid and persuasive contemporary theology and does this always in the presence of the question which inspired Bonhoeffer's theological journey from its academic beginnings to its very deliberately lived end the question Who is Jesus Christ
