Stanton, 2016-03-23 In its six case studies The Dynamics of Gender in Early Modern France works out a model for early modern gender which is articulated in the introduction. The book comprises essays on the construction of women in three texts by male and three by female writers including Racine, F. de La Barre in the first part, La Fayette and S. de Vigny in the second. These studies thus also take up different genres: satire, tragedy and treatise, memoir, novella and letter writing. Since gender is a relational construct, each chapter considers as well specific textual and contextual representations of men. In every instance, Stanton looks for signs of conformity to and deviations from normative gender scripts. The Dynamics of Gender adds a new dimension to early modern French literary and cultural studies: it incorporates a dynamic, shifting theory of gender and it engages both contemporary critical theory and literary historical readings of primary texts and established concepts in the field. This book emphasizes the central importance of historical context and close reading from a feminist perspective, which it also interrogates as a practice. The Afterword examines some of the meanings of reading as a feminist.

Courting Alecia Simmonds, 2023-11-07 Award-winning author Alecia Simmonds uncovers a hidden history of love and heartbreak in the archives of law. Until well into the twentieth century, heartbroken men and women in Australia had a legal redress: for their suffering, jilted lovers could claim compensation for breach of promise to marry. Hundreds of people, mostly from the working classes, came before the courts, and their stories give us a tantalising insight into the romantic landscape of the past: where couples met, how they courted, and what happened when flirtations turned sour. In packed courtrooms and breathless newspaper reports, love letters were read as contracts and private gifts, and gossip scrutinised as evidence. In Courting, Alecia Simmonds brings these stories vividly to life, revealing the entangled histories of love and the law. Over the long arc of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, pre-industrial romantic customs gave way to middle-class respectability; women used the courts to assert their rights, and the law eventually retreated from people's romantic lives. With women, Simmonds argues, losing out in the process. Challenging our preconceptions about how previous generations loved and lost, and prompting fascinating questions about the ethics of love today, Courting is a transcontinental journey into the most intimate corners of the past. Enthralling and compelling. Anne Summers. A beautifully written account of the trials and tribulations of romantic love across the centuries. Delightful and engrossing. Courting is filled with stories of infatuation, deception and heartbreak, as well as the legal, moral and gendered regulation of betrothal and marriage. This is history richly told. Anna Clark, author of Making Australian History. Original and provocative, witty and wise. Alecia Simmonds. Courting is an example of the new Australian history at its finest. Diving deep into legal records, this illuminating book explores the changing relationships between men and women, love and law, as enacted in courtship and courtrooms over two centuries. Women are the key actors in these entangled stories as they seek legal avenues for redress.

and compensation for material harm and lacerated feelings In a powerful conclusion Simmonds ponders on what has been lost in legal reform and the ambiguities of feminist progress Marilyn Lake In this marvellously engaging history Alecia Simmonds takes us through a sparkling collection of stories in which the path of true love or what was sometimes mistaken for it led not to the altar but to the courtroom Frank Bongiorno Simmonds is mistress of the well turned phrase and the arresting observation She is also a fine historian Marian Quartly Inside Story The Lady's Magazine Or Entertaining Companion for the Fair Sex, 1782 The Lady's Magazine; Or, Entertaining Companion for the Fair Sex, Appropriated Solely to Their Use and Amusement ..., 1782 Harper's New Monthly Magazine, 1858 The Musical World, 1875 Coming Out: L'Initiation (L'INTÉGRALE): (Nouvelle Érotique MM, Première Fois, Tabou, Gay M/M) Dominique Adam, Coming Out L Initiation L INT GRALE Les 3 tomes de la s rie 4 99 seulement Retrouvez les tomes 1 2 99 2 2 99 et 3 2 99 dans ce coffret exceptionnel 20 ans un visage d ange et pr t pour son initiation Jean est un jeune homme aux traits fins de 20 ans Il vient de quitter sa petite ville de province pour monter Paris Il se sent pousser des ailes car recommencer 0 lui permettra de repartir de 0 n ayant jamais os faire son coming out il veut s assumer enti rement Paris et profiter de la vie ENFIN Il se rend dans un bar connu pour sa client le gay un peu d lur e et d s le pas de la porte s y sent comme chez lui Il est vite pris en charge par John un habitu dont la chemise serr laisse appara tre un torse muscl et viril John va tout lui faire d couvrir A Dictionary ... of Commerce and Commercial Navigation ... John Ramsay McCulloch, 1877
