

Church Welcome Speech

I want to take a moment to extend a very warm welcome to everyone who's visiting us for the first time this morning. Whether you're just having a look, or are searching out for a place to worship, we're delighted to have you here.

To give you some idea of what we're all about, I'll quickly sketch some of our foundational beliefs.

Our vision says this: Getting and growing people in relationship with Jesus.

So firstly, we're all about Jesus Christ. We believe that Jesus was who he said he was, the Son of God who came and died for our sins. So if this is your first time in church, we hope that get to know Him as we do, because He's truly what life is all about for us!

Secondly we're all about people. Every person who walks through our doors is important to us, so if you ever feel like just another number, we're doing something wrong and I give you permission to tell me about it.

As a group of God's people we care about you and your family and we're here not only to feed you spiritually, but to help in any way we can. We love doing it and it's why we exist!

The Modern Speech New Testament Richard Francis Weymouth,1905 Spirit Speech Dr. Luke A. Powery,2010-10-01

That the Holy Spirit is present in preaching is something we take for granted How the Spirit is present is a question we seldom ask Luke Powery suggests that we fail to ask that question to the detriment of our preaching Drawing on the tradition of African American preaching he locates the Spirit s activity in the sermon in two primary places First in celebration the joyous acceptance of God s gifts to the church and to the world But equally as powerful is the expression of lament the lifting up of our sorrow grief and suffering In these two experiences the Spirit plays the decisive role enabling the preacher to lay the congregation s joys and sorrows at the feet of the living God and announcing God s presence in both our celebration and our lament
