Groundwork for a Better Vocabulary R. Kent Smith, Beth Johnson, Carole Mohr, 1998 This instructor's edition of a vocabulary textbook for college students who read at the fifth to eighth grade level features 25 chapters and teaches 250 basic words. The first and third chapters in each unit contain word part practices. The second and fourth chapters in each unit contain synonym/antonym practices. The book's last chapter in each unit contains an analogy practice review and test. Also included is an answer key, a section on dictionary use, and a word list. The student edition is identical to the instructor's edition except that answers are not provided. CR      English Essentials John Langan, Beth Johnson, 2005 In the words of the text's best-selling author John Langan, Grammar books can be really dull. But they don't have to be. English Essentials is a new text that makes grammar, punctuation, and usage interesting with pictures, stories, and activities students will enjoy. The affordable price, ease of use, and simple, familiar language distinguish this engaging text from others on the market.      Ten Steps to Improving College Reading Skills John Langan, 1997      Ten Steps to Building College Reading Skills John Langan, 1993      Ten Steps to Advancing College Reading Skills John Langan, 1989 A textbook in English reading comprehension for college students.      Ten Steps to Building College Reading Skills Bill Broderick, 1994      Instructor's Manual and Test Bank to Accompany Groundwork for College Reading Bill Broderick, 2000      *John U. Monroe, dean of the college at Harvard, left his twenty-year administrative career at that prestigious university for a teaching position at Miles College, an unaccredited, historically black college on the outskirts of Birmingham, Alabama. This unconventional move was a natural continuation of Monroe's life-long commitment to equal opportunity in education. A champion of the underprivileged, Monroe embodied both the virtues of the Greatest Generation and the idealism of the civil rights era. His teaching career spanned more than four decades, and as biographer Toni Lee Capossela demonstrates, his influence reached well beyond his lifetime. In addition to being a talented administrator, Monroe was a World War II veteran, a crusading journalist, a civil rights proponent, and a spokesman for the fledgling Peace Corps. His dedication to social justice outlasted the fervor of the 1960s and fueled bold initiatives in higher education. While at Harvard, he developed a financial aid formula that became the national template for needs-based scholarships and earned him the title "The Father of Modern Financial Aid." During his decade at Miles College, he spearheaded a satellite freshman program in the economically depressed Greene County, then went on to help design a literacy program, a senior research requirement, and a writing across the curriculum program at Tougaloo College. When hearing and memory loss drove him from the classroom, he moved his base of operations to Tougaloo's Writing Center, working with students in a collaborative relationship that suited his personality and teaching style. Only in 1996, after struggling with the symptoms of Alzheimer's for several years, did he
