Felix Steffek, Hannes Unberath, Hazel Genn, Reinhard Greger, Carrie Menkel-Meadow, 2014-07-04. This book proposes a principled approach to the regulation of dispute resolution. It covers dispute resolution mechanisms in all their varieties, including negotiation, mediation, conciliation, expert opinion, mini trial, ombud procedures, arbitration, and court adjudication. The authors present a transnational Guide for Regulating Dispute Resolution (GRDR). The regulatory principles contained in this Guide are based on a functional taxonomy of dispute resolution mechanisms, an open normative framework, and a modular structure of regulatory topics. The Guide for Regulating Dispute Resolution is formulated and commented upon in a concise manner to assist legislators, policy makers, professional associations, practitioners, and academics in thinking about which solutions best suit local and regional circumstances The aim of this book is to contribute to the understanding and development of the legal framework governing national and international dispute resolution Theory empirical research and regulatory models have been taken from the wealth of experience in 12 jurisdictions Austria Belgium Denmark England and Wales France Germany Italy Japan the Netherlands Norway Switzerland and the United States of America Experts with a background in academia practice and law making describe and analyse the regulatory framework and social reality of dispute resolution in these countries On this basis the authors draw conclusions about policy choices regulatory strategies and the practice of conflict resolution This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional s International Arbitration online service
