European Integration Perspectives in Times of Global Crises Andreas Kellerhals, Tobias Baumgartner, Corinne Reber, 2023-04-06 With its White Paper on the Future of Europe the European Commission initiated a debate on fundamental reforms of the Union's structures in 2017 The paper outlined five reform

scenarios ranging from a reduction and refocusing of the EU's competences to deeper integration in the spirit of a United States of Europe. However, the White Paper ultimately had no tangible impact as none of the proposed scenarios were implemented. Nevertheless, current global challenges including health crises, climate change, energy resource management, shifting global power dynamics, and related security issues underscore the growing need for a strong and united Europe. The idea of an ever closer union, as enshrined in the preamble of the 1992 EU Treaty, could be experiencing a revival. Against this backdrop, the 13th Network Europe Conference examined the significance of the European integration project in times of global crisis. Discussions focused on key policy challenges, the EU's relationships with its eastern and southern neighbors, and its role in relation to global actors such as China and Russia. The publication features contributions from Michael Ambühl, Jelena Ceranic Perisic, Viorel Cibotaru, Christelle Genoud, Christos V. Gortsos, Iris Goldner Lang, Nora Meier, Peter Christian Müller, Graff Eva, Pils Clara, Portela, and Peter R. Rodrigues. Network Europe was founded in 2003 by the Europa Institute at the University of Zurich with support from the Swiss government. It serves as a forum for scholarly exchange on legal and political aspects of European integration, bringing together researchers from across Europe.

Executive-legislative (Im)balance in the European Union Diane Fromage, Anna Herranz-Surrallés, 2021-02-11. Ten years after the entry into force of the Lisbon Treaty, has executive predominance in EU-related matters disappeared? How have executive-legislative relations in the EU evolved over a crisis-ridden decade, from the financial and migration crises to Brexit and the COVID-19 pandemic? The Lisbon Treaty could be expected to lead to the re-balancing of powers in favour of parliaments, for it significantly enhanced the roles of both the European Parliament and national parliaments. A decade later, the contributions to this edited volume examine for the first time in such an extensive breadth and from a multi-level and cross-policy perspective whether this has actually materialised. They highlight that diverging tendencies may be observed and that important variations over time have occurred, depending particularly on the occurrence of crises. As stated in the fascinating epilogue by Peter Lindseth, University of Connecticut School of Law, this is an admirably coherent collective volume whose contributions provide an excellent overview of key aspects of executive-legislative relations in the European system since the Treaty of Lisbon. This edited volume will hence be of interest to both academics and practitioners interested in future reforms designed at the European and national levels to improve the EU's democratic quality.
