Rethinking Biblical Discipleship Perspective And Practice

Craig A. Carter

Rethinking Biblical Discipleship Perspective And Practice:

Rethinking Biblical Discipleship Anthlone W. Wade, Glenroy H. Prince, 2014-10-22 Authors Anthlone Wade and Glenroy Prince have seen the sad reality of present day Christians who believe in the existence of God and the Lord Jesus Christ but are not willing to embrace the calling of being God honoring disciples of Jesus as well This is due in part to churches making excuses for not educating their congregations on how to apply the truths of the Gospel into their daily lives Their new book Rethinking Biblical Discipleship journeys into the essentials of discipleship as modeled and taught by Jesus His apostles and the Early Church and outlines how churches and Christians can join together to accomplish this discipleship mission

Carter, 2006 I am aware that the thesis of this book that we must move from a Christendom to a post Christendom way of thinking about the Christ and culture problem will be judged by many individuals to be far too radical for their tastes That is perfectly understandable so far as I am concerned I know that not everyone feels the pressure of the post Christendom trend equally at the same time Western Christendom was not built in a single day and it will take a long time for it to die out everywhere So I hope it does not sound arrogant when I say that I have not written this book for yesterday but for tomorrow and perhaps for today Shepherds of the Steppes Mark D. Wood, 2023-06-01 The evangelical Mongolian church has experienced significant growth since the country opened to the world in 1990 Despite the growth and emergence of the evangelical church in Mongolia relatively little has been written on the church from the perspective of the leaders themselves This ethnographic study seeks to express the experience of male evangelical Mongolian church leaders in their own words The book focuses specifically on the leaders experiences of conversion discipleship navigation of Mongolian culture and traditions and theological education Readers will hear from evangelical church leaders why they became Christians and what their experience with discipleship was like for them The issue of contextualization for evangelical Christians is also a central focus In particular the translation of the term for God in Mongolian and the perspective of the church leaders are explored This book will be of interest to those exploring Christianity in Asia and post socialist contexts as well as seeking to better understand contemporary Mongolian culture

The Importance of Inner Healing and Deliverance for Effective Discipleship Johnathan Lee Shoo

Chiang,2019-12-18 Personal encounters with God are vital for the current generation of believers the postmodern millennial generation who affirm truth through experience Instead of the traditional view of inner healing and deliverance IHD as a hospital unit of the church this dissertation turned book will explain the biblical theological and current relevance of incorporating IHD into the discipleship structure of the local church With field research based in Singapore and Taiwan a grounded theory based on empirical research attests to a framework that enables believers to personally and powerfully encounter God experience divine healing and wholeness and become equipped for ongoing sanctification Gathering

Disciples Myra Blyth,Andy Goodliff,2017-02-08 This collection of essays by British Baptists honors the work of Christopher Ellis amongst the Baptist community recognizing in particular the contribution he has made to the practice and theology of Free Church worship The book takes a selection of his hymns as a starting point for reflection on areas of worship discipleship the sacraments and theology Seeking the Straight and Narrow Lynne Gerber,2012-08-01

Losing weight and changing your sexual orientation are both notoriously difficult to do successfully Yet many faithful evangelical Christians believe that thinness and heterosexuality are godly ideals and that God will provide reliable paths toward them for those who fall short Seeking the Straight and Narrow is a fascinating account of the world of evangelical efforts to alter our strongest bodily desires Drawing on fieldwork at First Place a popular Christian weight loss program and Exodus International a network of ex gay ministries Lynne Gerber explores why some Christians feel that being fat or gay offends God what exactly they do to lose weight or go straight and how they make sense of the program s results or frequently their lack Gerber notes the differences and striking parallels between the two programs and more broadly she traces the ways that other social institutions have attempted to contain the excesses associated with fatness and homosexuality Challenging narratives that place evangelicals in constant opposition to dominant American values Gerber shows that these programs reflect the often overlooked connection between American cultural obsessions and Christian ones Crossing Boundaries, Redefining Faith

Michael Clawson,April Stace,2016-11-08 The Emerging Church Movement an eclectic conversation about how Christianity needs to evolve for our postmodern world has been breaking traditional bounds and stirring up controversy for more than two decades This volume is the first academic work to adopt an interdisciplinary approach to understanding this complex and boundary crossing phenomenon Containing contributions by researchers from a diverse set of disciplines this book brings together historical sociological ethnographic anthropological and theological approaches to offer the most thorough and multifaceted description of the Emerging Church Movement to date Contributors Juan Jose Barrera Toscano Dee Yaccino Gerardo Marti Lloyd Chia Jason Wollschleger James S Bielo Jon Bialecki Heather Josselyn Cranson Xochitl Alviso Chris James Tim Snyder Decolonizing Discipline Valerie E. Michaelson, Joan E. Durrant, 2020-09-04 In June 2015 Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission released 94 Calls to Action that urged reform of policies and programs to repair the harms caused by the Indian Residential Schools Decolonizing Discipline is a response to Call to Action 6 the call to repeal Section 43 of Canada's Criminal Code which justifies the corporal punishment of children Editors Valerie Michaelson and Joan Durrant have brought together diverse voices to respond to this call and to consider the ways that colonial Western interpretations of Christian theologies have been used over centuries to normalize violence and rationalize the physical discipline of children Theologians clergy social scientists and First Nations Inuit and Métis leaders and community members explore the risks that corporal punishment poses to children and examine practical non violent approaches to discipline The authors invite readers to participate in shaping this country into one that does not sanction violence against children The result is a multifaceted exploration of theological debates scientific evidence and personal journeys of the violence that permeated Canada's Residential Schools and continues in Canadian homes today Together they compel us to decolonize discipline in Canada

Keep It Real Prof. Anne E. Streaty Wimberly, 2010-12-01 Offers the village of hope as a framework where pastors and leaders offer the church as a place of support guidance and accountability for youth parents and other adults who are raising today's black youth The first edition of Working with Black Youth edited by Charles R Foster and Grant S Shockley was published in 1989 Since that time the challenges for black youth have only intensified and grown in complexity A burning question of Black churches continues to be How can we effectively ministry with our youth Their world is fast paced media centered techno savvy hip hop violent and plagued with HIV AIDS The Church wants to guide youth toward a Christian identity with values for wise decision making Youth want their questions heard They want to see hope modeled They need leadership opportunities While there are no quick easy or singular approaches to working with black youth there can be a framework to offer vital and relevant youth ministry This book proposes a comprehensive framework that has evolved over ten years of annual youth and family convocations of the Interdenominational Theological Center as well as youth and family forums and activities related to the Youth Hope Builders Academy of ITC The framework builds on the image of the congregation as a village of hope where pastors and leaders get real to offer the church as a place of support guidance and accountability for youth parents and other adults who are raising today's black youth Contributors Daniel O Black Philip Dunston Maisha I Handy Michael T McQueen Tapiwa Mucherera Elizabeth J Walker Herbert R Marbury Annette R Marbury and Anne E Streaty Wimberly Practicing Baptism Bård Eirik Hallesby Norheim, 2014-02-19 Where is Jesus Christ This fundamental question is the starting point of this book which investigates the shape of Christian life and ministry in a post Christendom context Over the last decades there has been a shift in much of Western theology towards focusing on Christian practices in ministry and theological education This may be seen as a way to deal with theological anxiety in an era of heightened personal autonomy In Practicing Baptism Bard Norheim critically analyzes the engagement in Christian practices As a response to this engagement Norheim develops a missional and diaconal theology for ministry focusing on the presence of Christ in Christian practices Fundamentally this is an attempt to answer a pressing question for today What do Christians do Norheim draws on Martin Luther's theology and his notion of the three modes of Christ's presence the present tense of baptism and Luther's idea of the marks of the church Based on this reading of Luther's theology Norheim suggests that Christian life and ministry could be interpreted through the concept practicing baptism

Visioning Augustine John C. Cavadini, 2019-04-29 The definitive compendium of Cavadini's essays on Augustine Visioning Augustine offers readers an expertly selected collection of essays exploring the text and history of the theology of Saint Augustine Prominent scholar and essayist John Cavadini offers modern audiences an innovative framework for understanding Augustine integrating articles and essays on significant texts historical and contemporary perspectives and insights into Augustine's development as a theologian Examining themes such as the transformation of the human will in De doctrina Christiana and Augustine's critique of philosophy in City of God Cavadini provides clear and accessible smaller size essays that serve as entry points for those interested in Augustinian scholarship The author's meditations on Augustinian texts invite readers to re-evaluate their interpretations and learn about the subtle and sophisticated vocabulary of Augustine An encounter with Augustine the Christian theologian Cavadini contends is not a narrowly focused parochial experience but instead a challenge to enlarge our horizons Written by one of the most prominent Augustinian scholars and essayists in the field Addresses ecumenical and cultural issues that weaken contemporary interest in Christian faith Offers modern readers historical context on Augustinian theology Provides a single volume collection of Cavadini's essays on Augustine written over the course of more than two decades Accessible prose and intellectual sensitivity to modern theological problems make Visioning Augustine an indispensable volume for graduate students scholars and professionals in all areas of Christian theology

Papers Presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies Held in Oxford 2003: Liturgia et cultus; Theologica et philosophica; Critica et philologica; Nachleben; First two centuries Frances Margaret Young, Mark J. Edwards, Paul M. Parvis, 2006

Apostolicity John G. Flett, 2016-05-23 At the heart of the ecumenical discussions over the past century lies the issue of what constitutes the apostolicity of the church In an attempt to forge structural agreements these discussions have ignored the diversity of world Christianity In this groundbreaking study John Flett presents a bold account of an apostolicity that embraces plurality

Shaped for Service Paul Goodliff, 2017-02-17 In the English speaking Western world alone thousands of men and women begin formal training for Christian ministry each year or informally seek to equip themselves for pastoral ministry Over the past fifty years the ancient world of virtue ethics has been reimagined as a means of forming people of character and morality today and in this book it is used as the framework to understand what we are doing as we form Christian ministers now and how we might strengthen that formation by more consciously linking the practices of ministry with the person spirituality and wisdom of the practitioner Writing out of the context of a lifetime of pastoral ministry and the oversight of ministers in the Baptist Union of Great Britain Paul Goodliff explores what pastors do and who they are called to be using a mixture of theological and pastoral inquiry reflections upon art and personal story This book will be of interest to those who are charged with forming the next generation of ministers but anyone starting out on that journey of formation for ministry will also find this vision of ministry challenging and inspiring Reconsidering

Intellectual Disability Jason Reimer Greig, 2015-11-02 Drawing on the controversial case of Ashley X a girl with severe developmental disabilities who received interventionist medical treatment to limit her growth and keep her body forever small a procedure now known as the Ashley Treatment Reconsidering Intellectual Disability explores important questions at the intersection of disability theory Christian moral theology and bioethics What are the biomedical boundaries of acceptable treatment for those not able to give informed consent Who gets to decide when a patient cannot communicate their desires and needs Should we accept the dominance of a form of medicine that identifies those with intellectual impairments as pathological objects in need of the normalizing bodily manipulations of technological medicine In a critical exploration of contemporary disability theory Jason Reimer Greig contends that L Arche a federation of faith communities made up of people with and without intellectual disabilities provides an alternative response to the predominant bioethical worldview that sees disability as a problem to be solved Reconsidering Intellectual Disability shows how a focus on Christian theological tradition s moral thinking and practice of friendship with God offers a way to free not only people with intellectual disabilities but all people from the objectifying gaze of modern medicine L Arche draws inspiration from Jesus s solidarity with the least of these and a commitment to Christian friendship that sees people with profound cognitive disabilities not as anomalous objects of pity but as fellow friends of God This vital act of social recognition opens the way to understanding the disabled not as objects to be fixed but as teachers whose lives can transform others and open a new way of being human Violence,

Desire, and the Sacred, Volume 1 Scott Cowdell, Chris Fleming, Joel Hodge, 2012-08-16 Violence Desire and the Sacred presents the most up to date inter disciplinary work being developed with the ground breaking insights of Ren Girard s mimetic theory The collection showcases the work of outstanding scholars in mimetic theory and how they are applying and developing Girard s insights in a variety of fields Girard s mimetic insight has provided a fruitful way for different disciplines such as literature anthropology theology religion studies cultural studies and philosophy to engage on common anthropological ground with a shared understanding of the human person The aim of this edited collection is to present this interdisciplinary work and to illustrate how Girard s insights provide fertile ground for bringing together disparate disciplines in a shared purpose As academic work on Girard s insights is growing this collection would meet the need to show the critical interdisciplinary applications of these insights Towards a Jewish-Christian-Muslim Theology David B.

Burrell,2014-01-07 Towards a Jewish Christian Muslim Theology delineates the ways that Christianity Islam and the Jewish tradition have moved towards each another over the centuries and points to new pathways for contemporary theological work Explores the development of the three Abrahamic traditions brilliantly showing the way in which they have struggled with similar issues over the centuries Shows how the approach of each tradition can be used comparatively by the other traditions to illuminate and develop their own thinking Written by a renowned writer in philosophical theology widely acclaimed for his comparative thinking on Jewish and Islamic theology A very timely book which moves forward the discussion at a period of intense inter religious dialogue Re-Imagining Nature Alister E. McGrath,2016-05-16

Reimagining Nature is a new introduction to the fast developing area of natural theology written by one of the world s leading theologians The text engages in serious theological dialogue whilst looking at how past developments might illuminate and inform theory and practice in the present This text sets out to explore what a properly Christian approach to natural theology might look like and how this relates to alternative interpretations of our experience of the natural world Alister McGrath is ideally placed to write the book as one of the world s best known theologians and a chief proponent of natural theology This new work offers an account of the development of natural theology throughout history and informs of its likely contribution in the present This feeds in current debates about the relationship between science and religion and religion and the humanities Engages in serious theological dialogue primarily with Augustine Aquinas Barth and Brunner and includes the work of natural scientists philosophers of science and poets
