Revelation A New Study:

Priesthood and Temple in John's Apocalypse Timothy B. Tse, 2024-12-12 Timothy B Tse argues that while John uses language drawn from the Hebrew Bible's descriptions of YHWH's dwelling place, scholarship has overlooked the importance of his spatial transformation of that language. Tse thus uses theories relating to Relevance Theory, Critical Space Theory, and Conceptual Metaphor to demonstrate that a significant part of John's apocalyptic strategy of resistance is to represent his vision to his audience spatially so that they can experience a divinely ordained alternative to the world in which they live. Tse first demonstrates John's attempts to relegate his audience's experience of space to his own revelation. John's description of the visionary world creates the metaphors: the earth is a Sanctuary and the Saints are its priests. Tse argues that under this view, life on earth must be evaluated according to the concerns of the Sanctuary, which by definition requires the removal of everything impure, and the Saints, namely all Christians in both the historic and visionary worlds, must take priestly responsibility for the earth. John therefore portrays the Saints joining in the removal of all impurity upon the earth by fighting as priests in God and the Lamb's war against Satan, Babylon, and all her impurities. Tse concludes that overall, John means to realign the church's experience of space so that they understand themselves as priests of the Sanctuary and live according to that reality.

Revelation's Hymns Steven Grabiner, 2015-02-26 Revelation's Hymns examines the hymnic pericopes in Revelation in light of the cosmic conflict theme. It considers this theme as integral to the development of Revelation's plot. Recognizing that critical studies give interpretative primacy to the political realities that existed at the time of Revelation's composition, Grabiner responds to the need for an examination of the storyline from the perspective of issues that are of narrative importance. Grabiner argues that the cosmic conflict is at the centre of the book's concerns and attempts to determine the function of the hymns with respect to this. Previous examinations of the hymns have considered them as a response and/or parody to Roman liturgy, examples of God's unquestioned sovereignty, or expressions of thematic overtones found throughout the book. While these approaches make a contribution to a greater understanding of the hymns, the relation to the ever-present conflict theme has not been explored. This study allows the hymnic sections to engage with the larger narrative issue as to who is truly the rightful sovereign of the Revelation Wilfrid J. Harrington, 2008 Revelation a prophetic apocalyptic letter is a profoundly Christian text Father Harrington is concerned to open up Revelation and to convey its Christian message After an introduction he provides a new translation of each section of the writing followed by notes which deal with matters of text and content that require clarification He then treats the passage as a whole by discussing its literary character its theological significance and its relevance to our situation Bibliographies direct the reader to important modern studies Father Harrington brings his scholarship to the Book of Revelation and conveys its Christian message He puts the work in its historical and social setting a first century c e province of the Roman Empire and explores its social and religious background and its literary character Through Father Harrington we hear clearly the challenge of John the prophet to the Churches of his time and to ours not to compromise the gospel message The Last Days James Roberts, 2023-01-25 The Last Days Time Seals and Trumpets is separated into three unique sections The first section speaks of God's timeline of events from the creation of time until the destruction of the world The creation of time is discussed from both mankind's view of measuring time and God's view concerning time It also explores how modern theories such as Darwin's theory of evolution Einstein's theory of relativity and the big bang theory compare with what the Word of God states The second section is an in depth study of the book of Revelation with emphasis on the opening of the seals and the blowing of the trumpets And the third section is a topical study of end time subjects with scripture references for each topic This book is unique in that it ties Old Testament scriptures to the events surrounding the seals and trumpets mentioned in Revelation The Cradle, the Cross, and the Crown

Andreas J. Köstenberger, L. Scott Kellum, Charles L. Quarles, 2016-08-15 The Cradle the Cross and the Crown guides serious New Testament students through the historical literary and theological dimensions of the biblical text allowing them to better understand and share God's word of truth 2 Tim 2:15 It offers a thorough introduction to all twenty seven books of the New Testament and closely examines events such as Christ's incarnation and virgin birth his crucifixion and resurrection and triumphant return The second edition features updated bibliographies and footnotes interpretation sections that cover different literary genres in the New Testament an epilogue that canvasses the entire storyline of Scripture and a variety of maps All of these new features contribute to making this a life long resource for students of Scripture THE UNVEILING

- A Guide to the Prophecies of the Book of Revelation Robert I. Adams, 2018-10-18 The world is heading toward a climax End time prophecies in the book of Revelation are nearing the time of their fulfillment As we get closer it is imperative we understand what to expect will occur on the world scene Here are some questions about the last book of the Bible that we need answers to What does it say about the future of the world Where does it place the church in the last days What does it say about Israel in the end time How does it portray the return of Christ THE UNVEILING conveys with clarity and conviction what the book of Revelation reveals concerning these issues A Study of the Articles of Faith James Edward Talmage,1924 God of Sense and Traditions of Non-Sense Sigve K. Tonstad,2016-01-19 One hundred taxis lined up on Church Street in Oslo on November 26 1942 deployed in order to round up the city s Jews and send them to Auschwitz This reality anchors God of Sense and Traditions of Non Sense it is theology from a Holocaust perspective The brash Elihu excoriating Job for his insistence that he is owed an explanation for the calamities that have befallen him This is the book s opening salvo Job speaking of a God of sense Elihu and Job s three friends inaugurating a tradition of non sense this is the existential and theological predicament The problem of finite suffering in this life addressed in the theological tradition with the prospect of infinite endless suffering in this book described as a key element in Traditions of Non Sense Back to the millions of Jews among them 188 women and 42 children from Oslo deported gassed and cremated in God of Sense this is not seen as a problem that defeats belief but as the reality that demands a religious and theological account of human existence

Charts on the Book of Revelation Mark Wilson,2007 This first of its kind charts book does not seek to support specific interpretations of end times prophecies Instead it depicts the literary historical and theological backgrounds of Revelation arguably the New Testament s most challenging book Includes seventy nine charts timelines and maps All charts are reproducible for classroom use Desiring Martyrs Harry O. Maier,Katharina Waldner,2020-12-16 Martyrs create space and time through the actions they take the fate they suffer the stories they prompt the cultural narratives against which they take place and the retelling of their tales in different places and contexts The title Desiring Martyrs is meant in two senses First it refers to protagonists and antagonists of the martyrdom narratives who as literary characters seek martyrs and the way they inscribe certain kinds of cultural and social desire Second it describes the later celebration of martyrs via narrative martyrdom acts monuments inscriptions martyria liturgical commemoration pilgrimage etc Here there is a cultural desire to tell or remember a particular kind of story about the past that serves particular communal interests and goals By applying the spatial turn to these ancient texts the volume seeks to advance a still nascent social geographical understanding of emergent Christian and Jewish martyrdom It explores how martyr narratives engage pre existing time space configurations to result in new appropriations of earlier traditions God's Beauty Parlor Stephen D. Moore,2001 God s Beauty Parlor opens the Bible to the contested body of critical commentary on sex and sexuality known as queer theory and to masculinity studies The author pursues the themes of homoeroticism masculinity beauty and violence through such texts as the Song of Songs the Gospels the Letter to the Romans and the Book of Revelation The Homiletic Review ,1890 Postcards from Patmos Osvaldo D. Vena,2024-11-27 In this work a fictionalized John is addressing a contemporary audience directly as if they were the original recipients of the book Unlike the author s two previous books which were historical fictions this one does not include fictional elements It does not dwell on possible scenarios advanced by information found in the text like the trip to Spain in the case of Paul Rather it aims at providing the audience with some additional historical information so they can have a better understanding of the place and time in which John wrote The reader will notice for example that instead of using inclusive language which would be anachronistic John uses male language to address God The author also explores fictionally John s feelings to allow the readers to imagine how he might have felt in the troubled times he lived in The Self-revelation of God Samuel Harris,1886 Karl Barth's Doctrine of Holy Scripture Klaas Runia,2018-11-27 Hardly any Christian doctrine is discussed so much today as that of Holy Scripture Innumerable books are published about it and official discussions in many churches are concerned with it Karl Barth s doctrine plays a great part whether positively or negatively in all of these discussions and reports His stature is so great that no one can deal with the problem of Holy Scripture without considering Barth s view and defining his own position over against it Indeed many aspects of Barth s view have come to be generally accepted as beyond criticism Such uncritical acceptance is itself a good reason to devote a special study to Barth s doctrine of Holy Scripture because no matter how we assess it the Church Dogmatics of Karl Barth is one of the greatest forces in the modern theological world In its vastness and variety its comprehensiveness and detail it constitutes a challenge to every school Nor is it to be met by caricature or sweeping generalization The individual themes demand searching analysis and appraisal at the exegetical historical and dogmatic levels at which Barth himself develops them Only on the basis of detailed treatment can there be ultimate understanding and assessment of the whole It is because Dr Runia tackles this preliminary problem that his present work is so significant He does not add to the list of general books Choosing a critical and sensitive area he devotes himself to the concentrated task of presenting the Barthian teaching on inspiration in its normative form In the course of his analysis he examines the proposed biblical basis of Barth s statement and brings it into lively interaction with the Reformation tradition which Barth believes that he represents By means of a thorough inquiry into the single point Dr Runia thus gives us a far more informative stimulating and authoritative criticism that is possible in more comprehensive studies The result is a valuable work which deserves to be widely studied and which should serve as a model for similar investigations into the many detailed themes of the Dogmatics It is characterized by an honesty and relevance which gives it more than a narrowly academic interest The real problems are faced and it is candidly the most orthodox of statements Yet the great verities of the traditional doctrine emerge the clearer and stronger for this powerful discussion and in such a way that they may again make their salutary impact on a wider theological front The Andover Review ,1885
