The Ophthalmology Examinations Review

Tien Yin Wong, 2011 With Contributions From Chelvin Sng National University Health System Singapore Laurence Lim Singapore National Eye Centre Singapore Many new treatments and diagnostic procedures in ophthalmology have been refined or newly developed during the past four years a new edition reflecting these changes is most timely The scope and aim of the book will be consistent with the first edition which provides a broad review of the specialist ophthalmology examinations for final year ophthalmology residents and trainees The book deals primarily with key facts and topics that are important from the examination perspective Only information and facts that are considered relevant and critical to the exams are covered with topics that may be of scientific interest but are not commonly tested in exams specifically left out Time challenged readers will also benefit from the knowledge acquired from various other sources or textbooks that are now organized and synthesized in this book While not meant to replace the standard textbooks enough information is contained within the book to serve as the main revision text nearer the exams The style and format of this book is intentionally didactic with questions and short answers The answer includes a model opening statement followed first by a classification system to aid organization of facts and then the core explanation in concise short notes Exam Tips are inserted to provide an insight into techniques of answering different types of questions and when appropriate a Clinical Approach section is also included In the new edition topics such as new understanding of disease mechanisms e.g. genetics of eye diseases new investigations e.g. OCT and novel procedures and treatment e.g. the use of antivascular endothelial growth factors new refractive surgical techniques are covered This book will be a valuable guide to the final year ophthalmology residents and trainees taking the specialist ophthalmology examinations particularly for exams with a strong oral or viva component Although primarily aimed at candidates attempting the British postgraduate exams FRCS FRANZCO MRCS MRCOphth and FRCOphth it is also useful for other examination systems e.g. the American Boards Many junior residents in fact find the information handy during grand rounds

Thomas, 1972 Ophthalmology Review Manual Kenneth C. Chern, Michael A. Saidel, 2012-02-20 This manual provides an organized reference to aid in management of clinical problems and preparation for board exams A standardized outline format is used in order to emphasize relevant information and allow rapid retrieval of key points Each section starts with anatomy and physiology the essential framework for understanding the basis for the related diseases and then summarizes specific disease entities in outline format with major features highlighted For quick reference over 200 specific disease entities are listed along with corresponding page numbers on the inside front cover of the book Figures have been selected to demonstrate classic findings and to highlight important relationships The manual covers all material listed in the OKAP Subject Outline published by the AAO The Ophthalmology Examinations Review Tien Yin Wong, 2001 Latest Edition The Ophthalmology Examinations Review 3rd Edition This book is targeted at the final year ophthalmology resident taking the specialist ophthalmology exams and deals primarily with key topics that are important from the examination viewpoint Only material that is considered relevant to the exams is covered The book will help the trainee or resident organize and synthesize knowledge acquired from various other sources or textbooks While not meant to replace the standard textbooks it contains enough information to serve as the main revision text nearer the exams The style of the book is didactic with questions and short answers The short answers are designed to be repetitive so as to enhance memory The answer includes a model opening statement followed usually by a classification system to aid organization of facts and then by the bulk of the answer in concise notes Exam Tips are inserted to provide insight into how to answer different types of questions and when appropriate a Clinical Approach section is also included Scattered within the text are hundreds of mnemonics to help the candidate in the final stages of preparation for the exams FMGE
