Unholy Sensations Joshua Paddison, 2025 The true story of the first California cult scandal In 1891 a suffragist and social reformer named Alzire Chevaillier launched a moral crusade to destroy Fountaingrove a utopian spiritualist community in northern California Chevaillier accused the colony s leader the poet and prophet Thomas Lake Harris of perverting the teachings of the Bible to promote a new sexology that was worse than Mormonism She insisted that Harris used magical powers of hypnosis to take sexual and financial advantage of his followers turning them into a spiritual harem that practiced free love and other gross immoralities Media reports emphasized the presence of Japanese immigrant men at Fountaingrove raising racialized specters of miscegenation and moral contamination The international scandal full of the sorts of salacious details prized by newspaper editors at the dawn of the era of yellow journalism would last more than a decade establishing Harris as the prototype for a new type of public menace the California cult leader Unholy Sensations takes a close up look at the Fountaingrove scandal to examine religion gender sexuality and race in the Gilded Age from a fresh perspective By chronicling the life stories of the people swept up in the scandal Unholy Sensations reveals connections and tensions between a wide variety of nineteenth century religious and social groups including suffragists and spiritualists Christian Scientists and Theosophists journalists and politicians and Protestant ministers and urban reformers Together these disparate groups helped spark California s first cult scare demonizing Harris as the first but far from the last dangerous California cult leader By showing that the term cult has always been a marker of race sexuality and religion Unholy Sensations reveals the limits of

American freedom and the centrality of religion to the policing of whiteness family and nation Sports Matters John Bloom, Michael Willard, 2002-09 Sports Matters brings critical attention to the centrality of race within the politics and pleasures of the massive sports culture that developed in the U S during the past century and a half Race, Class, and Gender in the United States Paula S. Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1994 Learning to Speak a New Tongue Fumitaka Matsuoka, 2011-09-14 Learning to Speak a New Tongue attempts to respond to a timely question facing America today What holds people together in a fragmented world The response comes from a religious community that has not been very visible Asian Americans The author employs the threefold epistemological scaffold familiar to Asian Americans 1 translocal value orientation embedded in the experiences of racialization 2 a heightened sensitivity to pathos arising out of our dissonance with the societal norms and values and 3 amphibolous spirituality that is a co existence of multiple religious traditions without any resolution of their differences The angle of vision embedded in this epistemological framework of Asian Americans lives may well provide a clue to an alternate architectural paradigm in building a new peoplehood and to redefine democratic freedom as the historical paradigm of American peoplehood Anti-Racist Teaching Robert P. Amico, 2015-12-03 Antiracist Teaching is about awakening students to their own humanity In order to teach about this awakening one must be in the process of awakening oneself The author shares personal anecdotes to illustrate the kinds of changes he experienced as a result of his antiracist teaching His book explores the questions Why is teaching about racism and white privilege to white students so difficult and What can educators do to become more effective antiracist teachers for all of their students Amico examines the cognitive and emotive obstacles that students experience in the classroom and argues that understanding these difficulties can lead to their resolution He considers a variety of different approaches to antiracist teaching and endorses a dialogic approach Dialogue is the centerpiece of students classroom experiences students engage in dialogue at nearly every class meeting The dialogic approach is effective in a variety of different learning settings from K 12 classrooms trainings retreats workshops and community organizations to the college classroom Further the book discusses how to bring antiracist teaching into the core of university curricula Women, Wars and Public Policies Ayanna Yonemura, 2025-03-31 Women Wars and Public Policies shatters the boundaries of conventional antiracism offering an examination of white supremacy s persistence through the lens of humanity s most pressing challenges The author tackles migration war national security terrorism nationalism and patriarchy exposing institutionalized oppressions across continents
