Migrant Anxieties Aine O'Healy, 2019-01-24 During a period of heightened global concerns about the movement of immigrants and refugees across borders Migrant Anxieties explores how filmmakers in Italy have probed the tensions accompanying the country's shift from an emigrant nation to a destination point for over five million immigrants over the course of three decades. In O'Healy traces a phenomenology of anxiety that is not only present at the sociopolitical level but also interwoven into the narrative strategies of over 30 films produced since 1990 throwing into sharp relief the interface between the local and the global in this transnational era. Starting with the representation of post communist migrations to Italy from Eastern Europe and subsequent arrivals from Africa through the controversial frontier of Lampedusa O'Healy explores topics as diverse as the configuration of migrant labor affective surrogacy Italian whiteness and the legacy of Italy's colonial history. Showing how contemporary filmmaking practices in Italy are linked to changes in the broader media landscape O'Healy analyzes the ways in which both Italian and migrant filmmakers are reimagining Italian society and remapping the nation's borderscape.

Italian Annotated Bibliography of Tuna, Tuna-like and Billfish Species Antonio Di Natale, 2022-12-15 The Italian annotated bibliography on tunas, tuna-like and billfish species is a sort of unicum because for the very first time it provides annotation in English for all papers published by Italian authors over the centuries in various languages. Taking into account that these species are an essential component of the Italian and Mediterranean culture, thousands of authors published a very high amount of papers since historical times on various themes and subjects. These large fish species are nowadays not only essential elements of the marine trophic chain but also important components of human seafood and the related fishery economy. This book makes all these papers internationally available for all scientists helping them in their research activities and the annotations facilitate the searching work by species and keywords.

Religious Freedom in Italy Alessandro Ferrari, 2023-12-31 Italy, seat of the Pope and Vatican City, has a long and difficult relationship with religious freedom. Often identified as a Catholic nation par excellence, Italy owes its unification to a political class that advocated the separation of Church and State. Home of the Concordat, contemporary Italy recognises a peculiar notion of legal secularism, laicità, as the supreme principle of its constitutional order. Through the glasses of law, tracing the history of the right to religious freedom from the Unification to the present day, the nine chapters of the book allow an insight on paradoxes and contradictions of a complex system made of unresolved stratifications where a strong constitutional recognition of religious freedom is accompanied by a weak legislative protection of religious pluralism and at the same time a vigorous religious agency in the public space. Religious freedom in Italy offers an interpretation of a model of religious freedom that is not only a paradigm for many European experiences but also a possible interpretative parameter to better understand the dynamics of religious freedom between the two shores of the Mediterranean.

The Bazaar in the Islamic City Mohammad Gharipour, 2012-10-01 The Middle Eastern bazaar is much more than a context for commerce; the studies in this book illustrate that markets regardless of their location scale and permanency have also played important cultural roles within their societies reflecting historical evolution industrial development social and political conditions urban morphology and architectural functions This interdisciplinary volume explores the dynamics of the bazaar with a number of case studies from Cairo Damascus Aleppo Nablus Bursa Istanbul Sana a Kabul Tehran and Yazd Although they share some contextual and functional characteristics each bazaar has its own unique and fascinating history traditions cultural practices and structure One of the most intriguing aspects revealed in this volume is the thread of continuity from past to present exhibited by the bazaar as a forum where a society meets and intermingles in the practice of goods exchange a social and cultural ritual that is as old as human history

Italian Gothic Horror Films, 1970-1979 Roberto Curti, 2017-09-21 Italian Gothic horror films of the 1970s were influenced by the violent giallo movies and adults only comics of the era resulting in a graphic approach to the genre Stories often featured over the top violence and nudity and pushed the limits of what could be shown on the screen The decade marked the return of specialist directors like Mario Bava Riccardo Freda and Antonio Margheriti and the emergence of new talents such as Pupi Avati The House with the Laughing Windows and Francesco Barilli The Perfume of the Lady in Black The author examines the Italian Gothic horror of the period providing previously unpublished details and production data taken from official papers original scripts and interviews with filmmakers scriptwriters and actors Entries include complete cast and crew lists plot summaries production history and analysis An appendix covers Italian made for TV films and mini series

Trump and Mussolini Anna Camaiti Hostert, Enzo Antonio Cicchino, 2022-10-17 Trump and Mussolini Images Fake News and Mass Media as Weapons in the Hands of Two Populists compares two historic men of power and influence Donald Trump and Benito Mussolini to analyze the commonality of practices and mannerisms between the two From rhetoric to body language to their control over oral and written communication and analogous power strategies they both possess an unusual talent for new technologies which they utilize to their advantage in unique moments in history Mussolini lived at the beginning of mass society Trump at the height of social media both controversial leaders finding means to utilize these periods of time and the tools surrounding them to further their own agendas and influence society culture and authority The authors examine a plethora of topics and themes such as outward personalities and consuming charisma means and tools of communication and propaganda and treatment of women just to name a few in order to define the relationship and similarities between these two controversial figures This book was written before the Capitol Hill assault on January 6th 2021 Mussolini in November 1922 in front of the Parliament said I could have made a bivouac of this gloomy gray hall I could have shut down the Parliament and formed a Government exclusively of Fascists I could have done so but I did not wish to do so at least not at this moment Trump however never said anything like this but indeed tried to do it

Wonders of Italy, 1949 The Ionian Islands Anthony Hirst, Patrick Sammon, 2014-06-26 The Ionian Islands stretch south from the Adriatic where Corfu's Pantokrator mountain overlooks

Albania across narrow straits along the western coast of mainland Greece through Paxi Kephallonia Ithaca Lefkada and Zakynthos to Kythira midway between Athens and Crete Three crucial sea battles were fought here Sybota the first recorded Actium and Lepanto an indication of the Ionians role as an East West crossroads between Western Christendom and the Orthodox and Islamic East Ruled by Venice in her Stato da Mar sea empire the islands became an independent state as the Septinsular Republic and then under British Protection as the United States of the Ionian Islands Before the mainland Greeks had a State the Ionian people were proud of having a university from 1824 in Corfu town a World Heritage Site The islands were united with the Kingdom of Greece in 1864 the first addition to its territory This book with over thirty illustrations explores the history archaeology languages customs and culture of the Ionian Islands Without venturing far from the islands readers will learn much about this distinctive part of the Mediterranean and Greek world The chapters range from the mythology of the Bronze Age Homer s Scheria where Odysseus startled Nausicaa as she bathed to today concentrating particularly on the British Protectorate 1815 1864 One illustrated by contemporary maps deals with descriptions of the islands by a fourteenth century Venetian writing in Latin The roles of Jews Souliot refugees Greek revolutionaries rebel peasants in Cephalonia and workers in Corfu s port suburb of Mandouki are examined in detail There are contributions on religion and philosophy as well as literature music painting and the folk art of carved walking canes

Foundations of Modernity Isa Blumi, 2017-06-16 Innovatively looking at the complex interactions between indigenous peoples and modern imperialism in Arabia and Balkans Foundations of Modernity challenges previous analytical models that attempt to capture the complexity of human interactions during the 1800 1912 period in ways that instigates the paradigmatic shift of the Eurocentric perspective of modern world history

Empire, Ideology, Mass Violence: The Long 20th Century in Comparative Perspective Tobias Hof, 2016-09-20 Despite the vast literature on genocide and mass violence during the 19th and 20th century one question still haunts historians and the wider public alike Why do ordinary men use extreme violence against fellow human beings Empire Ideology Violence The Long 20th Century in Comparative Perspective offers innovative methods and interdisciplinary approaches to the study of extreme violence in the long 20th century By looking at case studies from different regions and time periods the contributors shed more light on the social political and economic contexts in which humans are inclined to use extreme forms of violence Topics in the volume include case studies from Asia Africa Europe the Ottoman Empire and the Nazi Third Reich

Saccà,2024-07-31 This volume illustrates and analyses the stereotypes and prejudices underlying the social representation of violence against women as it is narrated and described in Italy by the press and by court judgements After a theoretical reflection on the role of culture and socialisation in reproducing the conditions underlying gender based violence and its normalisation and after reconstructing the historical evolution of gender roles and the stages of women s condition the book presents the results of a sociological and of a socio linguistic analysis on a vast corpus of 16 715 newspaper articles published by fifteen Italian newspapers on gender crimes specifically femicide sexual violence domestic violence women trafficking The chapters analyze how national macro regional and local Italian press narrates violence against women but they also analyze a repertoire of 283 judicial sentences The results show a clear tendency to redistribute the responsibilities of these crimes between the perpetrator and the victim leading not only to secondary victimization but also to tertiary victimization affecting the quality of Italian institutions as well as the democratic fiber of the nation The volume finally includes a compendium of the best and the worst practices found in the corpuses of sentences and newspapers articles and a set of recommendations addressed to the institutional actors and journalists for a correct representation of gender based violence free from those stereotypes and prejudices that violate the dignity of male violence victims and prevent them from accessing justice Wonders of Italy: Rome ,1937 List of Officers of the Department of State, Including the List
