A Modern Guide to Knowledge Francisco J. Carrillo, 2022-11-18 Outlining an integrative theory of knowledge Francisco Javier Carrillo explores how to understand the underlying behavioural basis of the knowledge economy and society Chapters highlight the notion that unless a knowledge based value creation and distribution paradigm is globally adopted the possibilities for integration between a sustainable biosphere and a viable economy are small Transportation, Knowledge and Space in Urban and Regional Economics Kakuya Matsushima,William P.

Anderson,2018-04-27 This collection of 16 original research chapters by international scholars addresses the complementary roles of transportation and knowledge and their spatial manifestations in modern urban and regional economies The authors provide research from North America Europe and Asia While the studies employ sophisticated methods and theory there is a strong element of practical applications and policy implications in each chapter as well This book will be of interest to communities of research and practice in urban and regional economics and planning regional science and economic geography transportation research planning and management and the knowledge economy

A Critical Mind Christine Godt,Matthias Lamping,2023-06-22 This book traces the academic footprint of Hanns Ullrich Thirty contributions revolve around five central topics of his oeuvre the European legal order competition law intellectual property the regulation of new technologies and the global market order Acknowledging him as a trailblazer the book aims to capture how deeply Hanns Ullrich has influenced contemporaries and subsequent generations of scholars The contributors re iterate the path breaking patterns of his teachings such as his contemplation of intellectual property as embedded in competition the necessity of balancing private and public interests in intellectual property law the policies of market integration and the peculiar relationship of technological advancement and protectionism

Sources of Knowledge and Entrepreneurial Behavior

David B. Audretsch,Albert N. Link,2019-01-01 Sources of Knowledge and Entrepreneurial Behavior delves into the nature and importance of the relationship between sources of knowledge and entrepreneurial behavior and should be of interest to both academics and policy makers David B Audretsch and Albert N Link use the Knowledge Spillover Theory of Entrepreneurship as the conceptual foundation for why individuals decide to become entrepreneurs Then using a database of more than 4 000 small and relatively new European companies from 10 different countries called the AEGIS database Audretsch and Link offer new insights about the relationship between knowledge sources and entrepreneurial behavior In their analysis of the empirical evidence in support of the Knowledge Spillover Theory of Entrepreneurship Audretsch and Link conclude that there is no singular source of knowledge driving entrepreneurship but a plethora of knowledge sources each associated with different dimensions of entrepreneurial activity The intellectual breakthrough in this book is not that knowledge matters or that it especially matters for entrepreneurship Rather Audretsch and Link show that knowledge and especially entrepreneurial knowledge is not a homogeneous phenomenon There are multiple sources of knowledge that act on entrepreneurial performance in a myriad of ways

Making Sense of the Learning Turn Anders Örténblad,2024-05-09 From learning toy and learning society to learning city and learning organization what is meant by learning The main focus of this volume is to increase our understanding of the learning turn referring in this book to the frequent occurrence and usage of terms in the last few decades where the word learning is the premodifier The authors also offer insights into the use of the word learning as a premodifier in the future and discuss what if anything may replace it such as knowledge as in knowledge management and smart as in smart city An extensive range of academic disciplines are covered including political science economics human geography philosophy linguistics higher education working life science management and organization and marketing While a single overall unified conclusion is not provided Making Sense of the Learning Turn presents a variety of voices and perspectives Some contributors are critical towards the learning turn explaining it in terms of fashion following manipulation and seduction Others interpret the learning turn more lightly or suggest a more collective form of learning as an alternative to the individualization of learning that some authors argue has been the case thus far

The Evolutionary Complexity of Endogenous Innovation Cristiano Antonelli, The notion of endogenous innovation as the outcome of the creative response of firms to out of equilibrium conditions is the cornerstone of the new evolutionary complexity This book elaborates and applies the theoretical framework established in the author's previous work Endogenous Innovation The Economics of an Emergent System Property This volume carefully explores the role of the reactivity of firms to out of equilibrium conditions It also examines the quality of knowledge governance mechanisms in assessing the levels of externalities that define the likelihood of creative responses as an alternative to adaptive responses

Embodiment, Political Economy and Human Flourishing Frédéric Basso, Carsten Herrmann-Pillath, 2024-05-11 This book presents embodied economics as a foundational alternative to behavioral economics and other projects integrating economics and psychology inspired by the computational paradigm The 20th century witnessed the disembodiment of economic models through the intensification of mathematization and formal abstraction in economics Even proponents of an embodied approach to cognition such as Hayek paradoxically championed the abstract market order as a disembodied superhuman intelligence In the wake of groundbreaking perspectives in cognitive and social sciences which have helped to rethink the fundamental building blocks of economics agency and institutions this title takes a radical turn towards embodiment Reinstating economics as political economy embodied economics motivates a critique of capitalism based on the analysis of disembodiment through abstraction and reactivates key critical insights into the anthropology put forward by the young Marx about contemporary economics and its conceptualizations of money property and labor Based on this analysis the authors envision a concrete utopia for an economic order centered on human dignity and care for life on Earth This book contributes to recent discussions about behavioral experimental and neuroeconomics and addresses a transdisciplinary audience in the social and behavioral sciences philosophy and the humanities A Translation Theory of Knowledge Transfer Kjell Arne Røvik, 2023-03-28 In A Translation Theory of Knowledge Transfer Kjell Arne Røvik develops a new theory on the challenges of transferring and sharing knowledge across organizational borders Based on extensive research he proposes a new reframing idea of knowledge transfer as acts of translation resembling the translation of texts This new concept both extends and challenges established theories of knowledge transfer Containing a comprehensive review of the last 40 years of research on knowledge transfer across organizational borders this book also offers a step by step account of how a new theory within organizational research has been developed R vik states that the capacity of an organization to transfer and exploit knowledge from other organizations is a key to its competitiveness progress and even survival and convincingly argues how this new translation theory can be used to guide practitioners involved in knowledge transfer processes

Citizen Knowledge Lisa Herzog,2023-09-15 Citizen Knowledge discusses how various forms of knowledge are dealt with in societies that combine a democratic political system with a capitalist economic system How do citizens learn about politics How are scientific insights taken up in politics What role can markets play for processing decentralized knowledge Lisa Herzog argues that the fraught relation between democracy and capitalism gets out of balance if too much knowledge is treated according to the logic of markets Complex societies need different mechanisms for dealing with knowledge among which democratic deliberation and expert communities are central Citizen Knowledge develops the vision of an egalitarian society that considers the use of knowledge in society a matter of shared democratic responsibility

Understanding Marxism Richard D. Wolff,2018-11-26 Why should we pay attention to the great social critics like Marx Americans especially now confront serious questions and evidences that our capitalist system is in trouble It clearly serves the 1% far far better than what it is doing to the vast mass of the people Marx was a social critic for whom capitalism was not the end of human history It was just the latest phase and badly needed the transition to something better We offer this essay now because of the power and usefulness today of Marx s criticism of the capitalist economic system eBook <https://bit.ly/2K6iI8v>
