University Biosimilars and Interchangeable Biologics Sarfaraz K. Niazi, 2018-10-30 What's the Deal with Biosimilars
 Biosimilars are gaining momentum as new protein therapeutic candidates that can help fill a vital need in the healthcare industry. The biological drugs are produced by recombinant DNA technology that allows for large scale production and an overall reduction in costs and development time. Part of a two volume set that covers varying aspects of biosimilars. Biosimilars and Interchangeable Biologics Strategic Elements explores the strategic planning side of biosimilar drugs and targets issues surrounding biosimilars that are linked to legal matters. This includes principal patents and intellectual property, regulatory pathways and concerns about affordability on a global scale. It addresses the complexity of biosimilar products and it discusses the utilization of biosimilars and related biological drugs in expanding world markets. Of specific interest to practitioners, researchers and scientists in the biopharmaceutical industry, this volume examines the science, technology, finance, legality, ethics and politics of biosimilar drugs. It considers strategic planning elements that include an overall understanding of the history and the current status of the art and science of biosimilars and it provides detailed descriptions of the legal, regulatory and commercial characteristics. The book also presents a global strategy on how to build, take to market and manage the next generation of biosimilars throughout their life cycle. Managing Technological Innovation Frederick Betz, 2011-02-22 Written by the author who helped crystalize the field of technology management and the management of innovation with the first two editions of Managing Technological Innovation, this Third Edition brings the subject in line with current business strategy. An Investment Perspective on Global Value Chains
Christine Zhenwei Qiang, Yan Liu, Victor Steenbergen, 2021-06-25 This report investigates the role of foreign direct investment (FDI) in helping developing countries participate in global value chains (GVCs). It combines the perspectives and strategies from three types of players: multinational corporations, domestic firms and governments. It aims to provide practical guidance for developing countries to develop strategies that use FDI to strengthen GVC participation and upgrading. The report has six main chapters:

1. FDI and GVCs: Assesses the trade investment nexus and analyzes the effect of FDI in countries. GVC participation and upgrading at the country level.
2. MNCs shape GVC development: Highlights MNCs contribution to global economy and how their business strategies shape the evolution of GVCs. The chapter also compares MNCs business strategies in terms of outsourcing and offshoring, risk mitigation and increasing market power across GVC archetypes.
3. Domestic firm perspectives on GVC participation: Looks at the various paths domestic firms can take to internationalize their production and trade. Investigates domestic firm characteristics that predict higher GVC participation and the effect of GVC participation on firm performance.
4. Investment policy and promotion: What is in a government's toolbox? Summarizes the various policy instruments governments have at their disposal to help attract MNCs to their country and facilitate GVC participation of domestic firms.
5. Integrating countries into GVCs: Draws on a range of case studies to illustrate how governments can develop coherent strategies and policy packages to integrate their countries into GVCs.
6. FDI and GVCs in the wake of COVID-19: Reflects the impact of COVID-19 on FDI and GVCs, the response from multinationals and suppliers and the implications for GVC reconfiguration. In addition, there are seven case studies that offer more nuanced analysis on the

GVC participation in selected countries and sectors Five qualitative case studies Five countries have been selected that managed to use FDI to stimulate GVC participation using a range of approaches By design these five countries also cover five different GVC archetypes These countries are 1 Kenya horticulture 2 Dominican Republic textiles 3 Mauritius tourism 4 Malaysia electronics 5 China software Two quantitative case studies Rwanda West Bengal India These use a combination of firm and transaction level datasets to study firm level dynamics that explain the role of multinational and domestic firms across GVCs
