Scale, Crisis, and the Modern Novel Aaron Rosenberg, 2023-11-09 At the turn of the twentieth century novelists faced an unprecedented crisis of scale While exponential increases in industrial production resource extraction and technological complexity accelerated daily life growing concerns about deep time evolution globalization and extinction destabilised scale's value as a measure of reality Here Aaron Rosenberg examines how four novelists moved radically beyond novelistic realism repurposing the genres romance melodrama gothic and epic it had ostensibly superseded He demonstrates how H G Wells Thomas Hardy Joseph Conrad and Virginia Woolf engaged with climatic and ecological crises that persist today requiring us to navigate multiple temporal and spatial scales simultaneously The volume shows that problems of scale constrain our responses to crisis by shaping the linguistic aesthetic and narrative structures through which we imagine it This title is part of the Flip it Open Programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details

phrases for an effortless more informed read      The Vital Science (Routledge Revivals) Peter Morton,2014-08-01 In this title first published in 1984 Peter Morton argues that in late Victorian Britain a group of novelists and essayists quite consciously sought and found ideas in post Darwinian biology that were susceptible to imaginative transformation The period between 1860 and 1900 was a time of great confusion in biology the natural selection hypothesis was in retreat before its acute critics and no extension of evolutionary theory to human affairs was too bizarre to attract its quota of enthusiasts Writers capitalised on this prevailing uncertainty and used it to their own artistic or polemic ends A fascinating and interdisciplinary title this reissue will interest students of late Victorian literature as well as historians of biological theory between The Origin of Species and Mendel      The Infinite Now Mindy Tarquini,2025-07-30 On a rainy night in Philadelphia s Ninth Street Market sixteen year old Fiora newly orphaned by the 1918 influenza epidemic is dumped at an old man s door Daughter of the local fortune teller Fiora arrives with a little money a lot of attitude and her mother s formidable reputation The old man a widowed shoemaker ticking down his clock is the only person in their superstitious immigrant community brave enough to stand between Fiora and an orphanage Fiora s a modern forward thinking young woman uninterested in using old world magic to make a way for herself but when her mother s magical curtain shows her that the old man will shortly die of a heart attack Fiora panics and casts her entire neighborhood into a stagnant bubble of time A bubble where everything continues but nothing progresses tomatoes won t ripen babies refuse to be born and the sick suffer under the weight of a never ending stream of unspent seconds Not everything in the bubble is bad Love fresh and fascinating ignites Friendships take root But as day drags into interminable day the pressure inside the bubble world builds Fiora must accept that not everything found can be kept not everything saved will remain and unless Fiora finds the courage to collapse the bubble every one of her hopes will be trapped inside an unbearable unyielding unpredictable and infinite Now      Writing and Censorship in Britain Paul Hyland,Neil Sammells,2023-02-03 First published in 1992 Writing and Censorship in Britain explores the issue of censorship from a range of cultural and literary perspectives from the Tudor period to the 1990s Written by some of the leading experts in the field this collection charts the struggles for artistic expression reveals how censorship is appropriated as a legitimate tactic in the defence of oppressed and marginalised groups and analyses the struggles writers have employed in the face of its complex dynamics Here variously defined defended and deplored censorship emerges as both an unstable and a potent concept Through it we define ourselves as readers as writers and as citizens This book will be of interest to students of literature history and law      The Madder Stain Annie Ramel,2015-06-02 The madder stain imprinted on Tess d Urberville s arm is part of a motif which runs through Hardy s fiction Similar to Barthes s punctum shooting out of the studium the stain is a place where the Real erupts a blind spot that eludes interpretation In the diegesis of the tragic novels it is a surplus object whose intrusion disrupts reality and spells disaster This book attempts to approach that unknowable kernel of jouissance by using Lacan s concepts of object gaze and object voice sometimes revisited by Žižek The stain has a vocal quality it is silence audible In a world where sound cannot reverberate for lack of a structural void voice is by necessity muted stuck in the throat Hence the peculiar quality of Tess s voice a silent feminine cry that has retained something of the lost vocal object The sound of silence is what Hardy s poetic prose allows us to hear      The Cambridge Companion to Thomas Hardy Dale Kramer,1999-06-24 Thomas Hardy s fiction has had a remarkably strong appeal for general readers for decades and his poetry has been acclaimed as among the most influential of the twentieth century His work still creates passionate advocacy and opposition The Cambridge Companion to Thomas Hardy is an essential introduction to this most enigmatic of writers These commissioned essays from an international team of contributors comprises a general overview of all Hardy s work and specific demonstrations of Hardy s ideas and literary skills Individual essays explore Hardy s biography aesthetics his famous attachment to Wessex and the impact on his work of developments in science religion and philosophy in the late nineteenth century Hardy s writing is also analysed against developments in contemporary critical theory and issues such as sexuality and gender The volume also contains a detailed chronology of Hardy s life and publications and a guide to further reading      Tess in the Theatre Thomas Hardy,Lorimer Stoddard,1950      The Nation ,1896
