The Universal Sense How Hearing Shapes The Mind Seth Horowitz:

The Universal Sense Seth S. Horowitz, 2012-09-04 Reveals how the human sense of hearing manipulates how people think consume sleep and feel explaining the hearing science behind such phenomena as why people fall asleep while traveling the reason fingernails on a chalkboard causes cringing and why songs get stuck in one's head

The Universal Sense Seth Horowitz, 2012-09-04 Every day we are beset by millions of sounds ambient ones like the rumble of the train and the hum of air conditioner as well as more pronounced sounds such as human speech music and sirens How do we know which sounds should startle us which should engage us and which should turn us off Why do we often fall asleep on train rides or in the car Is there really a musical note that can make you sick to your stomach Why do city folks have trouble sleeping in the country and vice versa In this fascinating exploration research psychologist and sound engineer Seth Horowitz shows how our sense of hearing manipulates the way we think consume sleep and feel Starting with the basics of the biology Horowitz explains why we hear what we hear and in turn how we've learned to manipulate sound into music commercial jingles car horns and modern inventions like cochlear implants ultrasound scans and the mosquito ringtone Combining the best parts of This is Your Brain on Music and The Emotional Brain this book gives new insight into what really makes us tick

Being Matt Murdock Christine Hanefalk, 2022-07-15 You will never look at Marvel's fan favorite character Daredevil the same way again In fact you may even start to look at your own world a bit differently too Welcome aboard a genre bending ride that combines an ambitious exploration of the science of the senses with a deep dive into the comic book and live action pursuits of the Marvel superhero Daredevil What could possibly allow someone to hear heartbeats Is there something it is like to radar sense Is it true that your remaining senses are enhanced if you lose one of them And how is it that any of us can sense anything in the first place Christine Hanefalk takes an in depth look at these questions and many more in this definitive examination of the science of Daredevil's senses Convinced that Matt Murdock makes for the best thought experiment in comics the author makes a passionate case for how we might come to understand this fan favorite character on a deeper level making room for both his blindness and heightened senses If you are both a Daredevil fan and someone who enjoys the science non fiction genre this book is sure to satisfy on both counts Balancing a healthy amount of irreverence with a meticulously researched examination of the relevant science as well as the history of Matt Murdock's fictional pursuits Being Matt Murdock is sure to entertain and enlighten About the author Christine Hanefalk is best known in the Daredevil fandom for her website The Other Murdock Papers where she has been writing about all things Daredevil for well over a decade Combining her love of Daredevil with a lifelong interest in the natural sciences she has turned a particular focus to examining the character's heightened senses through a scientific lens She holds a Master of Science in Engineering degree in Molecular Biotechnology from Uppsala University

Moravian Soundscapes Sarah Justina Eyerly,2020-05-05 In Moravian Soundscapes Sarah Eyerly contends that the study of sound is integral to understanding the interactions between German Moravian missionaries and Native communities in early Pennsylvania In the mid 18th century when the frontier between settler and Native communities was a shifting spatial and cultural borderland sound mattered People listened carefully to each other and the world around them In Moravian communities cultures of hearing and listening encompassed and also superseded musical traditions such as song and hymnody Complex biophonic geophonic and anthrophonic acoustic environments or soundscapes characterized daily life in Moravian settlements such as Bethlehem Nain Gnadenh tten and Friedensh tten Through detailed analyses and historically informed recreations of Moravian communal environmental and religious soundscapes and their attendant hymn traditions Moravian Soundscapes explores how sounds musical and nonmusical human and nonhuman shaped the Moravians religious culture Combined with access to an interactive website that immerses the reader in mid 18th century Pennsylvania and framed with an autobiographical narrative Moravian Soundscapes recovers the roles of sound and music in Moravian communities and provides a road map for similar studies of other places and religious traditions in the future

The Inner Voice in Gadamer's Hermeneutics Andrew Fuyarchuk, 2017-07-15 The inner word in Gadamer's hermeneutics refers to the meaning that exceeds anything explicitly said This explanation has been subsumed within metaphysical and theological parameters of interpretation with little regard for the implication of Gadamer's turn to the living language for understanding the inner word Through examining his phenomenology of the inner word The Inner Voice in Gadamer's Hermeneutics reveals its musical rhythmic and tonal dimensions and how they function to harmonize disparate orientations in the middle voice above all for Gadamer those that underlie modes of cognition in both the humanities and the sciences a visual and auditory ethos However understood as constituting the music of language discernible in the middle voice the inner word is also suppressed or forgotten by the technological extension of sight that is print and thus requires a turn of the inner ear or auditory disposition Andrew Fuyarchuk assesses theories of language in evolutionary and cognitive science in light of Gadamer's insights into the nature of thought and he employs them to account for a dimension of language that is inscribed in the lingual minds of our species. When recalled by the inner ear, this dimension enables us to think such opposites together as we find in the humanities and sciences together. This thinking together is expressed in a double account of an object of inquiry such as the one Fuyarchuk puts forward about the inner word in Gadamer's philosophical hermeneutics.

A Marriage of Philosophy and Music Erich Welling, 2014-04. How to use philosophy and music to open your horizons and enjoy being yourself put theory to work and help you experience personal growth is discussed in A Marriage of Philosophy and Music. It is all about after. After having a liberal education, you are comfortable in modern culture and after further education and becoming a specialist in some field, you enjoy using your skills. We learn the ideas and methods of many social cultures and our own chosen specialty, but we often neglect the liberal art of disciplining and enjoying the ideas and methods of our own individuality. This book offers a path toward the education of privacy with the key words being selection, design, and beauty. The book relates five areas of general human interest: spirituality, philosophy, science, art, and body awareness. The interrelation is accomplished by using personal patterns of experience that are available from philosophy and music. Because of the plurality of subject matters and methods used in philosophy and music, their patterns of discipline are comparable to self-discipline. A Marriage of Philosophy and Music attempts to create a path in this direction because, besides the enjoyment of social culture and personal skills, there is enjoyment in being yourself, which is a neglected liberal art.

Hank Phillippi Ryan, Agatha Anthony, Macavity, and Mary Higgins Clark, award-winning author. Kinematic Rhetoric Joddy Murray, 2020-04-24. Joddy Murray in Kinematic Rhetoric puts forward a theory of rhetoric that adds the elements of movement, sound, image, affect, and duration to traditional accounts of digital visual and multimodal rhetorics. His concept of time-affect images provides a complex and nuanced theory for composing that builds upon his earlier concept of nondiscursive texts By turning to Deleuze's work on cinema Murray presents the time affect image which generates and amplifies affectivity through duration and motion and is the key concept in this rhetorical theory Motion he argues creates meaning that is independent of the content and like all images carries with it the potential for persuasion through the affective domain

The Sonic Boom Joel Beckerman, 2014 A guide to the effective use of sound in marketing revealing the surprising ways sound can influence our emotions opinions and preferences

Hardy, Conrad and the Senses Epstein Hugh Epstein, 2019-11-12 Explores scenic realism in the major novels of Thomas Hardy and Joseph Conrad Offers the first book length study of connections between these two major authors bringing new approaches to bear on often taught works Provides an understanding of impressionist styles of writing that is drawn from contemporary empirical science Tells a progressive chronological story of both authors use of the senses in their fiction Argues for a distinctive place for Hardy and Conrad in late Victorian fiction which challenges the narrative of a modernist rupture with Victorian realism Supported by wide reading in nineteenth century science and letters and comprehensive knowledge of twentieth century criticism of the two novelists This book reads the highly descriptive impressionist writings of Hardy and Conrad together in the light of a shared attention to sight and sound With a focus on nature and the environment Hugh Epstein analyses thirteen of these powerful works in the historical company of contemporary discussions in Victorian science He takes them beyond their Victorian and Modernist labels to show how vivid and urgent these novels are for the modern reader
