The Woman in White Wilkie Collins, 2020-08-03 This is the story of what a Woman's patience can endure and what a Man's resolution can achieve If the machinery of the Law could be depended on to fathom every case of suspicion and to conduct every process of inquiry with moderate assistance only from the lubricating influences of oil of gold the events which fill these pages might have claimed their share of the public attention in a Court of Justice But the Law is still in certain inevitable cases the pre-engaged servant of the long purse and the story is left to be told for the first time in this place As the Judge might once have heard it so the Reader shall hear it now No circumstance of importance from the beginning to the end of the disclosure shall be related on hearsay evidence When the writer of these introductory lines Walter Hartright by name happens to be more closely connected than others with the incidents to be recorded he will describe them in his own person When his experience fails he will retire from the position of narrator and his task will be continued from the point at which he has left it off by other persons who can speak to the circumstances under notice from their own knowledge just as clearly and positively as he has spoken before them
