Sally Potter Catherine Fowler, 2010-10-01 This survey of Sally Potter s work explores her cinematic development from the feminist reworking of La Bohème in Thriller to the provocative contemplation of romantic relationships after 9 11 in Yes Catherine Fowler traces a clear trajectory of developing themes and preoccupations and shows how Potter uses song dance performance and poetry to expand our experience of cinema beyond the audiovisual Potter has relentlessly struggled against predictability and safe options Again and again her works grapple with the complexities of being a woman in charge Instead of the quest to find a romantic partner that drives mainstream cinema Potter s films feature characters seeking answers to questions about their sexual gendered social cultural and ethnic identities They find answers by retelling stories investigating mysteries and traveling and interacting with people At the heart of Potter s work is a concern with the ways narrative circumscribes women s ability to act speak look desire and think for themselves Her first two films Thriller and The Gold Diggers largely deconstruct found stories clich s and images By contrast later films like Orlando and The Tango Lesson create new and original narratives that place female acts voices looks desires and thoughts at their center Fowler s analysis is supplemented by a detailed filmography bibliography and an extensive interview with the director British Film Jim Leach,2004-08-30 This book explores British cinema in relation to its social political and cultural contexts Each chapter deals with a specific topic and includes close readings of key films from different historical periods Demonstrating the richness and variety of a national cinema that has traditionally struggled to define itself between the paradigms of Hollywood popular film and European art cinema British Film provides comprehensive coverage of British cinema and detailed discussion of specific films that can be used in tandem with screenings British Women Film Directors in the New Millennium Stella Hockenhull,2017-04-27 This book focuses on the output of women film directors in the period post Millennium when the number of female directors working within the film industry rose substantially Despite the fact that nationally and internationally women film directors are underrepresented within the industry there is a wealth of talent currently working in Britain During the early part of the 2000s the UKFC instigated policies and strategies for gender equality and since then the British Film Institute has continued to encourage diversity British Women Directors in the New Millennium therefore examines the production distribution and exhibition of female directors work in light of policy The book is divided into two sections part one includes a historical background of women directors working in the twentieth century before discussing the various diversity funding opportunities available since 2000 The second part of the book examines the innovation creativity and resourcefulness of British female film directors as well as the considerable variety of films that they produce selecting specific examples for analysis in the process Tourism and the Globalization of Emotions Maria Törnqvist,2013-09-02 Today an increasing number of people from all over the world travel to Buenos Aires to dance tango To accommodate these intimate voyagers tourist agencies offer travel packages including classes in tango instruction dance shoe shopping and special city maps pointing out the tango clubs in town Some of these agencies even provide taxi dancers mainly Argentine men who make a living by selling themselves as dance escorts to foreign women on a short term stay Based on a cheek to cheek ethnography of intimate life in the tango clubs of Buenos Aires this book provides a passionate exploration of tango its sentiments and symbolic orders as well as a critical investigation of the effects of globalization on intimate economies Throughout the chapters the author assesses how in an explosive economic and political context people s emotional lives intermingle with a tourism industry that has formed at the intersection of close embrace dances and dollars Bringing economies of intimacy centre stage the book describes how a global condition is lived bodily emotionally and politically and offers a rich provocative contribution to theorizing today s global flows of people money and fragile dreams As the narrative charts a course across a sea of intense immediate emotional sensations taken for granted ideas about sex romance and power twist and turn like the steps of the tango From Ballroom to DanceSport Caroline Joan S. Picart,2012-02-01 Drawing on recent media portrayals and her own experience author and dancer Caroline Joan S Picart explores ballroom dancing and its more sporty equivalent DanceSport suggesting that they are reflective of larger social political and cultural tensions The past several years have seen a resurgence in the popularity of ballroom dance as well as an increasing international anxiety over how and whether to transform ballroom into an Olympic sport Writing as a participant critic Picart suggests that both are crucial sites where bodies are packaged as racialized sexualized nationalized and classed objects In addition Picart argues as the choreography costuming and genre of ballroom and DanceSport continue to evolve these theatrical productions are aestheticized and constructed to encourage commercial appeal using the narrative frame of the competitive melodrama to heighten audience interest Existentialism and Contemporary Cinema Jean-Pierre Boulé,Ursula Tidd,2012-09-15 This is a volume of essays which addresses a relatively neglected topic and conceptual approach and is of relevance across a range of interrelated areas specifically film studies French studies existentialist studies philosophy modern cultural and media studies

Women in British Cinema Sue Harper,2000-06-01 This book takes a broad perspective and analyses the ways in which the British film industry has dealt with women and their creativity from 1930 to the present The first part of the book deals comprehensively with different historical periods in British film culture showing how the agency of production company director distribution company or scriptwriter can bring about new patterns of female stereotyping The second part looks at the input of women workers into the film process It assesses the work of women in a variety of roles directors such as Wendy Toye and Sally Potter producers such as Betty Box scriptwriters such as Clemence Dane and Muriel Box costume designers such as Shirley Russell and Jocelyn Rickards and editors and art directors This is a polemical book which is written in a lively and often confrontational manner It uses fresh archival material and takes energetic issue with those explanatory models of film analysis which impose easy answers onto complex material The Cambridge Companion to Modern British
