Raising the Barre Lauren Kessler, 2015-11-24 Like generations of little girls Lauren Kessler fell in love with ballet the first time she saw The Nutcracker and from that day at age five she dreamed of becoming a ballerina But when she was twelve her very famous ballet instructor crushed those dreams along with her youthful self assurance and she stepped away from the barre Fast forward four decades Lauren suddenly powerfully itchingly restless at midlife embarks on a Transcontinental Nutcracker Binge Tour where attending a string of performances in Chicago New York Boston and San Francisco reignites her love affair with the ballet and fuels her girlhood dream What ensues is not only a story about The Nutcracker itself but also an inside look at the seemingly romantic but oh so gritty world of ballet about all that happens away from the audience's eye that precedes the magic on stage It is a tale told from the perspective of someone who not only loves it but is also seeking to live it Lauren's quest to dance The Nutcracker with the Eugene Ballet Company tackles the big issues fear angst risk resilience the refusal to settle in to midlife the refusal to become yet another Invisible Woman It is also a very funny very real look at what it's like to push yourself further than you ever thought you could go and what happens when you get there

Extraordinary Anthropology Jean-Guy Goulet, Bruce Granville Miller, 2007-01-01 What happens when anthropologists lose themselves during fieldwork while attempting to understand divergent cultures When they stray from rigorous agendas and are forced to confront radically unexpected or unexplained experiences In Extraordinary Anthropology leading ethnographers from across the globe discuss the importance of the deeply personal and emotionally volatile ecstatic side of fieldwork Anthropologists who have worked in communities in Central America North America Australia Africa and Asia share their intimate experiences of transformations in the field through details of significant dreams haunting visions and their own conflicting emotional tensions Their experiences demonstrate the necessary fluidity of research agendas the value of going beyond an accepted and safe cultural and academic vantage point and the inevitability of wrestling with tension and unhappiness when faced with irreconcilable cultural and psychological dichotomies The contributors explore ways in which conventional research methods can be adapted to creatively engage the intellectual ethical and practical dimensions of these dislocations and capitalize on them Unsettling and revealing Extraordinary Anthropology will spark debate and reflection among anthropologists for years to come

Realities of Bird Life Edmund Selous,1927      Germany in the World: A Global History, 1500-2000 David Blackbourn,2023-06-06 Brilliantly conceived and majestically written this monumental work of European history recasts the five hundred year history of Germany With Germany in the World award winning historian David Blackbourn radically revises conventional narratives of German history demonstrating the existence of a distinctly German presence in the world centuries before its unification and revealing a national identity far more complicated than previously imagined Blackbourn traces Germany's evolution from the loosely bound Holy Roman Empire of 1500 to a sprawling colonial power to a twenty first century beacon of democracy Viewed through a global lens familiar landmarks of German history the Reformation the Revolution of 1848 the Nazi regime are transformed while others are unearthed and explored as Blackbourn reveals Germany's leading role in creating modern universities and its sinister involvement in slave trade economies A global history for a global age Germany in the World is a bold and original account that upends the idea that a nation's history should be written as though it took place entirely within that nation's borders
