

Journal Prompts: The Things They Carried Tim O'Brien

1. In the list of all the things the soldiers carried, what item was most surprising? Which item did you find most evocative of the war? Which items stay with you?

2. In "On The Rainy River," we learn the 21-year-old O'Brien's theory of courage: "Courage, I seemed to think, comes to us in finite quantities, like an inheritance, and by being frugal and stashing it away and letting it earn interest, we steadily increase our moral capital in preparation for that day when the account must be drawn down. It was a comforting theory."

What might the 43-year-old O'Brien's theory of courage be?

Were you surprised when he described his entry into the Vietnam War as an act of cowardice?

Do you agree that a person could enter a war as an act of cowardice?

3. Why is the first story, "The Things They Carried," written in third person?

How does this serve to introduce the rest of the novel?

What effect did it have on your experience of the novel when O'Brien switched to first person, and you realized the narrator was one of the soldiers?

4. What is the role of shame in the lives of these soldiers? Does it drive them to acts of heroism, or stupidity? Or both? What is the relationship between shame and courage, according to O'Brien?

5. Often, in the course of his stories, O'Brien tells us beforehand whether or not the story will have a happy or tragic ending. Why might he do so? How does it affect your attitude towards the narrator?
