 Chao,2025-05-13 Chao explores Sinophone literature as a complex field that navigates the intersections of Sinitic languages global literary systems and China centered perspectives He presents an alternative perspective that Sinophone literature especially through ghost narratives offers a platform for communities to critically examine modernity transgress boundaries and challenge epistemologies By emphasizing locality this book critiques the homogenization of knowledge production and highlights the importance of local experiences in shaping Sinophone identity Questioning the linear essentialist interpretations of Chineseness a more fluid understanding influenced by cultural memory globalization and transnational dynamics emerges This book advocates for an expanded scope of Sinophone theory that includes the Chinese mainland moving beyond an against diaspora stance Building upon postcolonialism and historical contexts it examines literary texts and ghost narratives originating from Taiwan Hong Kong Malaysia and the Chinese mainland delving into the diversity of Sinophone literature An excellent read for students researchers and scholars interested in Chinese literature cultural studies and critical literary work with a focus on Asian studies      French Literature Classics - Ultimate Collection: 90+
