Mitchell, Consultant Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon Honorary Consultant and Senior Clinical Lecturer David Mitchell, 2010-05-13 A beautifully designed limited edition of David Mitchell's electrifying new novel Each of these slipcased editions is signed and numbered and has a ribbon marker coloured paper edges and specially illustrated endpapers With a print run of just 500 this is a treat for collectors Imagine an empire that has shut out the world for a century and a half No one can leave foreigners are excluded their religions banned and their ideas deeply mistrusted Yet a narrow window onto this nation fortress still exists an artificial walled island connected to a mainland port and manned by a handful of European traders And locked as the land gate may be it cannot prevent the meeting of minds or hearts The nation was Japan the port was Nagasaki and the island was Dejima to where David Mitchell's panoramic novel transports us in the year 1799 For one Dutch clerk Jacob de Zoet a dark adventure of duplicity love guilt faith and murder is about to begin and all the while unbeknownst to him and his feuding compatriots the axis of global power is turning      Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 James Acheson, 2017-01-17 Focuses on the novels published since 2000 by twenty major British novelists The Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 is divided into five parts with the first part examining the work of four particularly well known and highly regarded twenty first century writers Ian McEwan David Mitchell Hilary Mantel and Zadie Smith It is with reference to each of these novelists in turn that the terms realist apostmodernist ahistorical and apostcolonialist fiction are introduced while in the remaining four parts other novelists are discussed and the meaning of the terms amplified From the start it is emphasised that these terms and others often mean different things to different novelists and that the complexity of their novels often obliges us to discuss their work with reference to more than one of the terms Also discusses the works of Maggie O'Farrell Sarah Hall A L Kennedy Alan Warner Ali Smith Kazuo Ishiguro Kate Atkinson Salman Rushdie Adam Foulds Sarah Waters James Robertson Mohsin Hamid Andrea Levy and Aminatta Forna      Experimental Buddhism John K. Nelson, 2013-10-31 Based on ethnographic fieldwork and archival research it is one of the first studies to give readers a sense of what is happening on the front lines as a growing number of Buddhist priests try to reboot their roles and traditions to gain greater significance in Japanese society The book profiles innovative as well as controversial responses to the challenges facing Buddhist priests From traditional activities conducting memorial rituals supporting residences for the elderly and infirm providing relief for victims of natural disasters to more creative ones collaborating in suicide prevention efforts holding symposia and concerts on temple precincts speaking out against nuclear power following Japan's 2011 earthquake opening cafés storefront temples and pubs even staging fashion shows with priests on the runway more progressive members of Japan's Buddhist clergy are trying to navigate a path leading towards renewed relevance in society. An additional challenge is to avoid alienating older patrons while trying to attract younger ones vital to the future of their temples. The work's central theme of experimental Buddhism provides a fresh perspective to understand how priests and other individuals employ Buddhist traditions in selective and pragmatic ways. Using these inventive approaches during a time of crisis and transition for Japanese temple Buddhism, priests and practitioners from all denominations seek solutions that not only can revitalize their religious traditions but also influence society and their fellow citizens in positive ways. The West in Asia and Asia in the West Elisabetta Marino, Tanfer Emin Tunc, 2015-01-26. This collection of new essays examines the transnational turn in cultural studies between Asia and the West. Topics include the relationship between European and American writers and Asia, western travelers to the East and eastern travelers to the West, transnational historic figures, the deconstruction of Orientalism, new critical perspectives in transnational studies, the immigrant experience in literature, post-colonial studies, and teaching the West in Asia and Asia in the West. The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels Eva-Maria Windberger, 2023-07-17. The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels combines the investigation of David Mitchell's novels with the introduction of a new critical concept to literary studies: empowerment. Aiming to situate and establish empowerment firmly within the context of literary studies, it offers the first framework and definition for reading fictional texts with the lens of empowerment and applies it in the analysis of discourse, the fictional characters, and the role of the reader in Mitchell's novels. Drawing on narratological analysis, cognitive approaches to literature, and reader response theory, it features close readings of Cloud Atlas (2004), Black Swan Green (2006), and The Thousand Autumns of Jacob de Zoet (2010) and dissects the author's strategies, poetics, and agenda of empowering fiction. This book argues for an inherent indissoluble connection between empowerment and the telling of stories and demonstrates how literary studies can benefit from a serious engagement with empowerment and how such an engagement can stimulate new responses to fiction and put literary studies in conversation with other disciplines.
