

The Tragedy of Julius Caesar

NAME _____ KEY _____

Act III

Scene 1

1. What reason does Caesar give for not reading Brutus's letter?
He says that what concerns himself should be dealt with last. The people of Rome come first.
2. What roles do the following characters play in the conspiracy?
Tribunus: He saves Marc Antony from Caesar.

Metellus Cimber: He speaks to Caesar about killing the wife and M.C.'s brother.

Cassius: He is the first to stab Caesar.
3. What is Caesar's opinion of himself? He is fair and commanding like the North Star.
4. What does "Et tu, Brute?" mean? How do these words relate to the theme of friendship in the play? It means, "And you too, Brutus?" These lines show that Caesar values his friendship with Brutus so much that if Brutus were to do for Caesar as he will.
5. Where does Caesar's dead body lie? How is this ironic? It lies on the Capitol steps, at the foot of Pompey's statue. This is ironic because he defeated Pompey.
6. What does Brutus tell the conspirators to do after killing Caesar? He wants them to bathe in Caesar's blood.
7. What promise does Brutus tell the servant to relay to Antony? Brutus says Antony won't be hurt or killed.
8. What does Antony say about the possibility of being killed by the conspirators? If they want to kill him, do it now.
9. After being assured he is in no danger, what does Antony ask of the conspirators? He wants to speak on Caesar's funeral.
10. What does Cassius think about granting Antony this favor? He thinks Antony will make the people turn against the conspirators.
11. What restrictions does Brutus set? Brutus will speak first and tell the people why they killed Caesar. Antony is not allowed to speak against the conspirators.
12. Summarize Antony's main points in his speech to Caesar's body? He is still loyal to Caesar and will avenge Caesar's death.
