New York Nouveau Sara Kippur, 2025-08-12 Postwar French writers were at the vanguard of global literary innovation from the experimental minimalism of the Nouveau Roman to the literary games of the OuLiPo but less often appreciated is the extent to which they worked closely with US editors and translators published actively with American presses and often theorized transatlantic connections within their work In this exciting new work Sara Kippur proposes a new French literary history that traces the deep connections between postwar literary experimentalism and the New York publishing industry compellingly arguing that US based editors publishers producers professors and translators crucially intervened to shape French literature While Kippur attends closely to well known writers such as Marguerite Duras Samuel Beckett Eugène Ionesco Georges Perec and Alain Robbe-Grillet she also amplifies the voices of those who have been less visible though no less relevant including women whose contributions have not received proper credit but who helped to foster a sense of new possibilities for twentieth century French writing With these untold histories stitched together in this book through new archival discoveries from special collections and personal archives on both sides of the Atlantic Kippur begins to dismantle rigid notions of canonicity authorship and national literature

Language Contact and the Future of English Ian Mackenzie, 2017-12-15 This book reflects on the future of the English language as used by native speakers speakers of nativized New Englishes and users of English as a lingua franca ELF The volume begins by outlining the current position of English in the world and accounts for the differences among native and nativized varieties and ELF usages It offers a historical perspective on the impact of language contact on English and discusses whether the lexicogrammatical features of New Englishes and ELF are shaped by imperfect learning or deliberate language change The book also considers the consequences of writing in a second language and questions the extent to which non native English speaking academics and researchers should be required to conform to Anglo patterns of text organization and English Academic Discourse The book then examines the converse effect of English on other languages through bilingualism and translation This volume is essential reading for students and scholars in English language

sociolinguistics language acquisition and language policy

Literary Invention and the Cartographic Imagination

,2022-10-24 Literary Invention and the Cartographic Imagination Early Modern to Late Modern is a wide ranging inter and transdisciplinary approach grounded in the twin rigors of theory and history which through close readings of authors from Edmund Spenser to Olga Tokarczuk and through considered discussions of the ideologies of walking and mapping in performance art and cultural representation assesses and analyses the significance of maps to literary texts and which examines the ways in which the literary maps imaginary and real worlds Together the essays demonstrate convincingly the close relationship between text map and culture

The Cook Maylis de Kerangal,2025-09-23 A slim bountiful beautifully written and gorgeously translated Portrait of the Chef as a Young Man Nancy Kline The New York Times Book Review One of BBC Culture s Ten Books to Read this March and The Rumpus Book Club Pick for March Maylis de Kerangal follows up her acclaimed novel The Heart with a dissection of the world of a young Parisian chef More like a poetic biographical essay on a fictional person than a novel The Cook is a coming of age journey centered on Mauro a young self taught cook The story is told by an unnamed female narrator Mauro s friend and disciple who we also suspect might be in love with him Set not only in Paris but in Berlin Thailand Burma and other far flung places over the course of fifteen years the book is hyperrealistic to the point of feeling at times like a documentary It transcends this simplistic form however through the lyricism and intensely vivid evocative nature of Maylis de Kerangal s prose which conjures moods sensations and flavors as well as the exhausting rigor and sometimes violent abuses of kitchen work In The Cook we follow Mauro as he finds his path in life baking cakes as a child cooking for his friends as a teenager a series of studies jobs and travels a failed love affair a successful business a virtual nervous breakdown and at the end a rediscovery of his hunger for cooking his appetite for life

The Alaska Sanders Affair Joël Dicker,2024-09-17 A Wall Street Journal Best Mystery of 2024 If The Truth About the Harry Quebert Affair read like Gatsby by way of David Lynch then The Alaska Sanders Affair recalls True Detective there s something both classic and daring about it One of the world s most original voices in crime fiction A J Finn 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Woman in the Window and End of Story The Alaska Sanders Affair transcends pigeonholing with its abundance of plot subplots and melodramatic U turns everything seems to be connected and Mr Dicker casts an undeniable spell Wall Street Journal The thrilling new whodunit from Jo l Dicker master of the plot twist and the author of The Truth about the Harry Quebert Affair and The Enigma of Room 622 April 1999 The body of Alaska Sanders is found on the shore of a lake near the quiet town of Mount Pleasant New Hampshire The young woman s death rocks the small community but the murder is quickly solved Within days a suspect is identified and soon convicted Case closed Or so it seemed Eleven years later Marcus Goldman celebrity author and amateur sleuth picks up a thread that will unravel not only the open and shut case of Alaska Sanders but the very fabric of his best friend Sergeant Perry Gahalowood s life Gahalowood who led the original Alaska Sanders investigation is hell bent on finding the truth and setting the record straight Teaming up with Marcus he hopes to find redemption by solving the most intricate and trying case of his career Set both before and after the events of his phenomenal worldwide bestseller The Truth about the Harry Quebert Affair Dicker's latest delivers the last word in slow burn police procedurals Clue by clue witness by witness question by question his characters painstakingly piece together an unguessable puzzle that could only have been set by this acclaimed master of the plot twist And as they uncover who Alaska Sanders truly was other ghosts from the past emerge Translated from the French by Robert Bononno Whitaker's Shorts 2015: The Year in Review Bloomsbury Publishing, 2014-11-20 Now in its 147th edition Whitaker's Almanack is the definitive reference guide containing a comprehensive overview of every aspect of UK infrastructure and an excellent introduction to world politics Available only as ebooks Whitaker's Shorts are selected themed sections from Whitaker's Almanack 2015 portable and perfect for those with specific interests within the print edition Whitaker's Shorts 2015 The Year in Review includes a digest of the 2013-14 year's events in the UK and abroad and articles covering subjects as diverse as Archaeology Conservation Business and Finance Opera Dance Film and Weather There is also an A-Z listing of all the results for the major sporting events from Alpine Skiing through to Fencing Football Horse Racing Polo and Tennis My Victorian Novel Annette R. Federico, 2020-05-08 The previously unpublished essays collected here are by literary scholars who have dedicated their lives to reading and studying nineteenth century British fiction and the Victorian world Each writes about a novel that has acquired personal relevance to them a work that has become entwined with their own story or that remains elusive or compelling for reasons hard to explain These are essays in the original sense of the word attempts individual and experiential approaches to literary works that have subjective meanings beyond social facts By reflecting on their own histories with novels taught studied researched and re-experienced in different contexts over many years the contributors reveal how an aesthetic object comes to inhabit our critical pedagogical and personal lives By inviting scholars to share their experiences with a favorite novel without the pressure of an analytical agenda the sociable essays in My Victorian Novel seek to restore some vitality to the act of literary criticism and encourage other scholars to talk about the importance of reading in their lives and the stories that have enchanted and transformed them The novels in this collection include Jane Eyre by Charlotte Brontë The Duke's Children by Anthony Trollope The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes by Arthur Conan Doyle The Newcomes by William Makepeace Thackeray Middlemarch by George Eliot Daniel Deronda by George Eliot The Return of the Native by Thomas Hardy Vanity Fair by William Makepeace Thackeray North and South by Elizabeth Gaskell Bleak House by Charles Dickens David Copperfield by Charles Dickens New Grub Street by George Gissing The Pickwick Papers by Charles Dickens Dracula by Bram Stoker Wuthering Heights by Emily Brontë Author Fictions Ingo Berensmeyer, 2023-10-04 Fictional novelists and other author characters have been a staple of novels and stories from the early nineteenth century onwards What is it that attracts authors to representing their own kind in fiction Author Fictions addresses this question from a theoretical and historical perspective Narrative representations of literary authorship not only reflect the aesthetic convictions and social conditions of their actual authors or their time they also take an active part in negotiating and shaping these conditions The book unfolds the history of such author fictions in European and North American texts since the early nineteenth century as a literary history of literary authorship ranging from the Victorian bildungsroman to contemporary autofiction It combines rhetorical and sociological approaches to answer the question how literature makes authors Identifying author fictions as narratives that address the fragile material conditions of literary creation in the actual and symbolic economies of production Ingo Berensmeyer explores how these texts elaborate and manipulate concepts and models of authorship This book will be relevant to English American and comparative literary studies and to anyone interested in the topic of literary authorship
