Smith, 2019-07-01 Mari Sandoz, born on Mirage Flats south of Hay Springs, Nebraska, on May 11, 1896, was the eldest daughter of Swiss immigrants. She experienced firsthand the difficulties and pleasures of the family's remote plains existence and early on developed a strong desire to write. Her keen eye for detail combined with meticulous research enabled her to become one of the most valued authorities of her time on the history of the plains and the culture of Native Americans. Women in the Writings of Mari Sandoz is the first volume of the Sandoz Studies series, a collection of thematically grouped essays that feature writing by and about Mari Sandoz and her work. When Sandoz wrote about the women she knew and studied, she did not shy away from drawing attention to the sacrifices, hardships, and disappointments they endured to forge a life in the harsh plains environment. But she also wrote about moments of joy, friendship, and for some, a connection to the land that encouraged them to carry on. The scholarly essays and writings of Sandoz contained in this book help place her work into broader contexts, enriching our understanding of her as an author and as a woman deeply connected to the Sandhills of Nebraska.      The Western Literary Tradition: Volume 1 Margaret L. King, 2020-09-16 This compact anthology provides a thorough introduction to the major works of the Western literary tradition from Antiquity to 1700. It includes excerpts from seventy texts composed in eight ancient and modern languages and in genres as diverse as epic, lyric, and dramatic verse, prose narrative including story, romance, and novel, and non-fiction prose including autobiography, biography, letter, speech, dialogue, and essay. Contents include selections from the Hebrew Bible, New Testament, and works by Homer, Euripides, Virgil, Ovid, Saint Augustine, Dante, Chaucer, Machiavelli, Montaigne, Shakespeare, Milton, and many more. Further distinguishing this collection is the inclusion of works by women writers often overlooked in other literary anthologies including works by Sappho Margery Kempe Marie de France Christine de Pizan and others Margaret L King's clear engaging introductions and notes support an informed reading of the texts while extending reader's knowledge of particular authors and problems of interest See available book previews to view the entire Table of Contents or visit www.hackettpublishing.com for more information The Western Literary Tradition's modest length and cost allow for the use of full length works many of which are available in Hackett Publishing's own well regarded and inexpensive translations and editions alongside the anthology without adding undue cost to a reader's total textbook fees
