

5 RETAIL MARKETING STRATEGIES FOR GROWTH

1. Put Care Into What You Already Have

Get creative with your store displays or use your space in new ways like hosting events. Shopping is becoming more of an experience so it is a must to make a customer's time in your store unique and appealing.

2. Create the Customer's Journey

Adjust the layout of your store accordingly to retail and consumer psychology. For example, manage your "lakefront property" by keeping your high margin products in a prime spot.

3. Use Email Marketing and Mobile Features

Majority of consumers shop through mobile devices because of convenience, ensure your store is mobile-friendly. In addition, build trust loyalty with your customers not just with new promotions but with newsletter, educational, or survey types of emails.

4. Utilize Social Media

People are spending hours of their time scrolling on several types of social media. Take advantage of this by having more potential and existing customers see to your services and products.

5. Referral Campaigns and Partnerships

Make use of loyal existing customers through referrals of their friends and family. You can also get referrals by getting involved in partnerships with other businesses or charities that reflect your business.
