Abstracts ,1977      First Great Financial Crisis Of The 21st Century, The: A Retrospective James R Barth,George G Kaufman,2015-10-23 Although there have been numerous studies of the causes and consequences of the Great Financial Crisis of 2007 2010 in the US and abroad many of these were undertaken only for a small number of countries and before the financial and economic effects were fully realized and before various governmental policy responses were decided upon and actually implemented This book aims to fill these voids by providing a more thorough assessment now that the worst events and the regulatory reforms are sufficiently behind us and much more information about these developments is available It reviews and analyzes the causes and consequences of and the regulatory responses to the Great Financial Crisis particularly from a public policy viewpoint In the process it explores such intriguing questions as What caused the crisis How did the crisis differ across countries What is the outlook for another crisis and when This is a must read for those who are trying to find answers to these questions      Reference Guide to Africa Alfred Kagan,Atoma Batoma,2014-10-16 This third edition of the Reference Guide to Africa explains the most important resources for the study of the continent of Africa It contains a general sources section and a larger disciplinary oriented section All sources are annotated A new edition is sorely needed since the last edition was published nine years ago The previous editions have been successfully used in research libraries worldwide since 1999 and it has been used to teach several African studies research courses The book provides an orientation for researching almost any topic in the arts humanities and social sciences concerning the continent of Africa and all of its countries and ethnic groups The first part explains and lists portals databases bibliographies indexes guides encyclopedias country sources biography primary sources government publications and statistics The second part presents 16 subject oriented chapters mostly in the arts humanities and social sciences from agriculture and food security to women studies It covers sources that broadly cover the continent or in some cases only North Africa and the Middle East It generally excludes sources limited to one country or region of Africa except for North Africa because of the nature of the literature One third of the sources in this edition are new and nearly half of them are available in electronic format There are author title and subject indexes This unique work is intended for students teachers librarians and researchers It likely will be used most by reference librarians and teachers for students in high school through graduate studies It will also be used independently by undergraduate and graduate students It can be used to answer simple reference questions provide the resources for an undergraduate paper or for comprehensive work by advanced students and researchers      The Retrospect of Practical Medicine and Surgery ,1873      Prosecuting Maritime Piracy Michael P. Scharf,Michael A. Newton,Milena Sterio,2015-05-28 This book addresses maritime piracy by focusing on the unique and fascinating issues arising in the course of domestic piracy prosecutions from the pursuit and apprehension of pirates to their trial and imprisonment It examines novel matters not addressed in other published works such as the challenges in preserving and presenting evidence in piracy trials the rights of pirate defendants and contending with alleged pirates who are juveniles A more thorough understanding of modern piracy trials and the precedent they have established is critical to scholars practitioners and the broader community interested in counter piracy efforts as these prosecutions are likely to be the primary judicial mechanism to contend with pirate activity going forward
