Werner Kreisel, Peter H. humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index Theophilus of Antioch Rick Rogers,2000-01-01 Theophilus of Antioch was a second century Syrian bishop who sought to promote in three books collectively known as Ad Autolycum a moralistic form of Christianity Given that this form of Christianity is generally considered by scholars as atypical within the early church Theophilus has not received the same amount of attention as have other second century theologians Rick Rogers seeks to redress this gap offering a fuller analysis of the rhetoric and focus of Theophilus s theological system as it is manifest in Ad Autolycum Rogers concludes that Theophilus s thought may have been closer to the emphasis of Hellenistic Judaism than was any other form of New Testament or early Christianity His book will hold strong appeal for scholars and students of early Christianity Transfiguring Time Olivier Clément,2019-02-07 Clément s Transfiguring Time is an early work written when he was 37 It carries all the excitement of his fresh encounter with Orthodoxy and the Fathers of the Christian Church He draws on his deep study of Hinduism Buddhism and Indian myths to differentiate the understanding of time and eternity in archaic religions in Hinduism and in Buddhism from the Christian and specifically Orthodox understanding of time and eternity This new translation the first one in English wants to bring Clément s early work to a new generation of readers The Tree of Life Douglas Estes,2020-03-17 The tree of life is an iconic visual symbol at the edge of religious thought over the last several millennia As a show of its significance the tree bookends the Christian canon yet scholarship has paid it minimal attention in the modern era In The Tree of Life a team of scholars explore the origin development meaning reception and theology of this consequential yet obscure symbol The fourteen essays trek from the origins of the tree in the texts and material culture of the ancient Near East to its notable roles in biblical literature to its expansion by early church fathers and Gnostics to its rebirth in medieval art and culture and to its place in modern theological thought Owning Your Magnificence Cindi Lane,2012-06-08 Owning Your Magnificence A Spiritual Psychology was inspired by a path to enlightenment called A Course in Miracles There are many paths to enlightenment but from the top looking down there is only one I was a traditional psychologist in my twenties however there seemed to be little room to talk about spirituality except to mention a spiritual awakening and the importance of service I have been an Advanced Teacher of the Course for twenty five years and made the divine decision to become a Licensed Clinical Mental Health Counselor so I could be in private practice for twenty years My second book *A Spiritual Emergency*The Myth of Mental Illness will soon follow Postcolonizing the Commonwealth Rowland Smith,2006-01-01 Women and resistance in Iran cowboy songs fetal alcohol syndrome the conquest of Everest women settlers in Natal What do these topics have in common The study of what used to be called Commonwealth literature or the new literatures has by now come to be known as postcolonial study This collection of essays investigates the status of postcolonial studies today The contributors come from three generations the pioneers who introduced study of the new literatures into university English departments the next generation who refined and developed many of the theoretical positions embodied in postcolonial study and the next much younger generation who use the established practices of the discipline to investigate the application of this theory in a wide range of cultural contexts Although the authors write from such different starting points a surprisingly similar set of images phrases and topics of concern emerge in their essays They return constantly to issues of difference and similarity the re examination of categories that often appear to be too rigidly defined in current postcolonial practices and to concepts of sharing experience ideas of home and even the use of land Postcolonizing the Commonwealth Studies in Literature and Culture offers an intriguing analysis of the state of postcolonial criticism today and of the application of postcolonial methods to a variety of texts and historical events It is an invaluable contribution to the current debate in both literary and cultural studies

Commemorating and Forgetting Martin J. Murray, 2013-04-25 When the past is painful as riddled with violence and injustice as it is in postapartheid South Africa remembrance presents a problem at once practical and ethical how much of the past to preserve and recollect and how much to erase and forget if the new nation is to ever unify and move forward The new South Africa's confrontation of this dilemma is Martin J Murray's subject in Commemorating and Forgetting More broadly this book explores how collective memory works how framing events persons and places worthy of recognition and honor entails a selective appropriation of the past not a mastery of history How is the historical past made to appear in the present In addressing these questions Murray reveals how collective memory is stored and disseminated in architecture statuary monuments and memorials literature and art landscapes of remembrance that selectively recall and even fabricate history in the service of nation building He examines such vehicles of memory in postapartheid South Africa and parses the stories they tell stories by turn sanitized distorted embellished and compressed In this analysis Commemorating and Forgetting marks a critical move toward recognizing how the legacies and impositions of white minority rule far from being truly past remain embedded in intertwined with and imprinted on the new nation's here and now THE HISTORY OF NOW: A GUIDE TO HIGHER YEARNING ANDY NATHAN, A Companion to Medieval Christian Humanism John P.

Bequette, 2016-04-08 A Companion to Medieval Christian Humanism explores the perennial questions of Christian humanism as these emerge in the writings of key medieval thinkers questions pertaining to the dignity of the human person the human person's place in the cosmos and the moral and educational ideals involved in shaping human persons toward the full realization of their dignity The contributors explore what form these questions take for medieval thinkers and how they answer these questions thereby revealing the depth of medieval Christian humanism Contributors are C Colt Anderson David Appleby John P Bequette Benjamin Brown Richard H Bulzacchelli Nancy Enright David P Fleischacker Justin Jackson Ian Levy J Stephen Russell Aage Rydstrom Poulsen Andrew Salzmann John T Slotemaker Benjamin Smith and Eileen C Sweeney

China's Transformations Lionel M. Jensen, Timothy B. Weston, 2006-12-21 This successor volume to China beyond the Headlines takes the reader even farther beyond the front stage to explore a China few Westerners have seen The contributors argue that the great gap between what specialists understand and the general public believes has led to distorted and potentially dangerous misunderstandings of the most powerful emerging player on the global stage Seeking to bridge that gap a group of prominent scholars journalists and activists challenge readers to move past the typical images of China presented by the media and to think about the common problems shared by China and the United States In an entirely new set of essays they explore such critical issues as environmental degradation nationalism unemployment film and literature news reporting the Internet sex tourism and the costs of the economic boom to vividly portray the complexity of life in contemporary China and how surprisingly often it speaks to the American experience Contributions by Bei Dao Susan D Blum Timothy Cheek Martin Fackler John Gittings Howard Goldblatt Peter Hays Gries Sandra Teresa Hyde Lionel M Jensen Tong Lam Sylvia Li chun Lin Jonathan Noble Tim Oakes David Ownby Judith Shapiro Timothy B Weston and Xiao Qiang

Parables Mette Birkedal Bruun, 2007 This study is concerned with the topographical layout of Bernard of Clairvaux's Parables It examines his treatment of such locations as Paradise Egypt and the bridegroom's chamber and his reformulation of central monastic issues as navigations within spiritual landscapes Milton's Places of Hope Mary C. Fenton, 2017-03-02 In early modern culture and in Milton's poetry and prose this book argues the concept of hope is intrinsically connected with place and land Mary Fenton analyzes how Milton sees hope as bound both to the spiritual and the material the internal self and the external world Hope as Fenton demonstrates comes from commitment to literal places such as the land ideological places such as the nation and sacred interior places such as the human soul Drawing on an array of materials from the seventeenth century including emblems legal treatises political pamphlets and prayer manuals Fenton sheds light on Milton's ideas about personal and national identity and where people should place their sense of power and responsibility Milton's politics and where he thought the English nation was and where it should be heading and finally Milton's theology and how individuals relate to God The Idea of Reform Gerhart Ladner, 2004-04-21 In this classic volume Ladner explores the origin and early history of the idea of reform The book opens with a look at varieties of renewal ideology then moves on to study the early Christian idea of reform The conclusion is an insightful examination of how the idea of reform influenced the earliest manifestations of Christian monasticism
