Kong Reborn Russell Blackford, 2010-08-25 Jack Denham grandson of moviemaker Carl Denham who brought Kong to New York in 1933 clashes with a ruthless business magnate Carlton Hemming as both attempt to clone the giant ape Kong from blood samples discovered by a high steel worker in 1999 Succeeding beyond their wildest dreams it is quickly apparent the cloned ape belongs back in his native wilderness and not the wilds of New York The final life and death struggle is played out on Skull Island a lost world in the Indian ocean full of monstrous creatures where the original Kong was found over 70 years ago Serials and Series Buck Rainey, 2015-06-08 While many fans remember The Lone Ranger Ace Drummond and others fewer focus on the facts that serials had their roots in silent film and that many foreign studios also produced serials though few made it to the United States The 471 serials and 100 series continuing productions without the cliffhanger endings from the United States and 136 serials and 37 series from other countries are included in this comprehensive reference work Each entry includes title country of origin year studio number of episodes running time or number of reels episode titles cast production credits and a plot synopsis

Golden Horrors Bryan Senn, 2015-09-03 From the grindhouse oddities to major studio releases this work details 46 horror films released during the genre's golden era Each entry includes cast and credits a plot synopsis in depth critical analysis contemporary reviews time of release brief biographies of the principal cast and crew and a production history Apart from the 46 main entries 71 additional borderline horrors are examined and critiqued in an appendix On the Nature of Marx's Things Jacques Lezra, 2018-03-27 On the Nature of Marx's Things is a major rethinking of the Marxian tradition one based not on fixed things but on the inextricable interrelation between the material world and our language for it Lezra traces to Marx's earliest writings a subterranean Lucretian practice that he calls necrophilological translation that continues to haunt Marx's inheritors This Lucretian strain requiring that we think materiality in non self evident ways as dynamic aleatory and always marked by its relation to language raises central questions about ontology political economy and reading Lezra writes Vittorio Morfino in his preface transfers all of the power of the Althusserian encounter into his conception of translation Lezra s expansive understanding of translation covers practices that put different natural and national languages into relation often across periods but also practices or mechanisms internal to each language Obscured by later critical attention to the contradictory lexicons of fetishism and of chrematistics that Capital uses to describe how value accrues to commodities and by the dialectical approach that s framed Marx s work since Engels sought to marry it to the natural philosophy of his time necrophilological translation has a troubling definitive influence in Marx s thought and in his wake It entails a radical revision of what counts as translation and wholly new ways of imagining what an object is of what counts as matter value sovereignty mediation and even number In On the Nature of Marx s Things a materialism of the encounter as recent criticism in the vein of the late Althusser calls it encounters Marxological value form theory post Schmittian divisible sovereignty object oriented ontologies and the critique of correlationism and philosophies of translation and untranslatability in debt to Quine Cassin and Derrida The inheritors of the problems with which Marx grapples range from Spinoza s marranismo through Melville s Bartleby through the development of a previously unexplored Freudian political theology shaped by the revolutionary traditions of Schiller and Verdi through Adorno s exilic antihumanism against Said s cosmopolitan humanism through today s new materialisms Ultimately necrophilology draws the story of capital s capture of difference away from the story of capital s production of subjectivity It affords concepts and procedures for dismantling the system of objects on which neoliberal capitalism stands concrete this wordly things like commodities but also such objects as debt traps austerity programs the marketization of risk ideologies the pedagogical professional legal even familial institutions that produce and reproduce inequities today
