Brand Loyalty in Bangladesh Dr. Md. Uzir Hossain Uzir,Profession Dr. Abu Bakar Abdul Hamid,Dr. Ts. Dr. Ahmad Shaharudin Abdul Latiff,Israaq Jerin,2021-05-06 A brand is a valuable asset and loyalty to a particular brand is the source of revenue and profitability of the business Brand loyalty is significant for the business growth and expansion of companies in the electronics sector A populated country Bangladesh has a substantial expenditure on electronic appliances and the demand for these household items increases over the period however customers are not always loyal to a particular

brand Marketing literature shows that customer satisfaction and brand confidence directly affect brand loyalty and brand trust mediates their relationship Due to the technological advance of social media technology has an essential role in the customer s decision to buy household appliances The existing literature has not focused on this massive demand for electronic appliances customer satisfaction loyalty trust and social media s significant role in consumer buying behavior The book shoed the investigation of the effect of customer satisfaction and brand trust of electronic home appliances on brand loyalty and the mediating role of brand trust in customer satisfaction and trust relationship The study also examined the extent to which customers believe social media information influences them The study gathered data from 523 Bangladeshi respondents from Dhaka by conducting a survey The data were analyzed with SPSS and CB SEM AMOS for the hypothesis test The findings revealed that customer satisfaction and brand trust significantly impact brand loyalty and social media moderates those significant relationships The result of the study contributed to the expectancy disconfirmation theory trust commitment theory brand loyalty theory and theory of reasoned action by presenting empirically based insight into customer satisfaction brand trust and brand loyalty constructs in electronic home appliances in Bangladesh In addition the results provided a practical insight into marketing and brand management They suggested the practicing managers in developing product quality with customer preference building trust through maintaining brand image and creating awareness among the customers and considering the significance of social media and its usage The research used probabilistic sampling techniques both rural and urban customers only a single home appliance and PLS SEM statistical tool for analysis Future researchers could focus and include other variables such as price or advertising consider loyalty separately and use both urban and rural customers to have better predictions

The Economic Geography of the IT Industry in the Asia

Pacific Region Philip Cooke, Glen Searle, Kevin O'Connor, 2013-07-18 The development of the information technology IT industry in the Asia Pacific region faces two challenges Firstly can its established physical technical regional and governance infrastructures be adapted to meet the challenges embedded in the set of products and processes created by the IT industry Secondly as this adaptation evolves which cities and regions will be best suited to connect to or lead global responses to these challenges The chapters in this book have set out to explore these questions providing details of change in a range of aspects of the IT industry such as mobile phones software services and flat screen design in regions in Japan Korea Taiwan India China and Australia The book also outlines the policy responses of national and regional governments in Singapore India and China and India These case studies provide a basis to understand effective strategies which could be formulated for the future This book s originality emerges from the fine detail provided about firms in particular regions and cities from research carried out by young scholars in the past two years This makes it very useful for readers keen to understand the recent changes in this dynamic industry in a fast growth part of the world and it will also help to shape thinking by policy makers on policy settings that can be applied

Educational Practices in China, Korea, and the United States Chuang

Wang,Lan Kolano,Do-Hong Kim,2020-03-01 This book is written by a diverse cohort of both of American educators including professors teachers school counselors and school administrators from pre K to college levels Most of the contributors come from disciplinary areas of English as a second language and school administration With the pressure of Common Core State Standards Initiative American educators are now shifting their focus to standards based instruction Meanwhile Chinese educators are moving away from national standards and developing state level curriculum and instruction to meet specific needs of the students in local provinces There is also a debate about whether or not to use the National College Entrance Examination as the only test for college admission Some provinces e g Zhejiang and Hubei are administering their own college entrance examinations The book outlines the sociocultural roots of education in the three countries linking the tradition and philosophical orientations to each country s own history of education Furthermore the book compares and contrasts the curriculum especially the teaching of English as a second foreign language in three countries This book examines the stress of students physical education various pedagogical styles in foreign language education as well as instructional texts and cross cultural dialogue between teachers Additionally the book explores factors that influence parent s involvement and women s educational and career aspirations Lastly the book presents modern technologies such as smart learning technologies and online learning platforms not only to facilitate future educational systems but also to promote international exchanges The chapters of the book are thematically diverse but they help to provide inspirations for educators both in American and Asian countries The findings offer alternative practical lenses for educational community to seek for some middle ground between Chinese South Korea and American education The intended audience for this book is graduate students teachers administrators and professionals in education Materializing Digital Futures Toija Cinque,Jordan
