

The Thing Around Your Neck

INTRODUCTION

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF CHIMAMANDA NGOZI ADICHIE

Adichie was born in Enugu, Nigeria, but grew up in Nsukka. Her father was the first professor of statistics in Nigeria, and her mother was the first female registrar at the University of Nigeria. Adichie studied medicine and pharmacy at the University of Nigeria, where she also edited the student magazine The Compass. When Adichie was 21, she received a scholarship to study communications at Cornell University in Philadelphia. She remained in America and attended Eastern Connecticut University, where she completed a degree in communication and political science. Following graduation, she completed a master's degree in creative writing at Johns Hopkins University. Adichie began writing her first novel, Purple Hibiscus, while completing her final year at Eastern Connecticut University. In 2005–2006, Adichie was a Hobbes Fellow at Princeton University and two years later, she completed a second master's degree in African Studies at Yale. Her novels have won a number of prizes. She's spoken at several TED events and regularly teaches writing workshops. Adichie is married and has two daughters, and her family divides their time between the United States and Nigeria.

HISTORICAL CONTEXT

Adichie's stories touch on a number of historical events. In "The Headstrong Historian," the character mentions the Royal Niger Company, which was a chartered company chartered by the British government. It was formed under another name and became the Royal Niger Company in 1888. The Company helped the British Empire gain control over areas along the Niger River and eventually formally colonize the area in 1914. The resulting Colony and Protectorate of Nigeria gained independence and became the Federal Republic of Nigeria in 1960. As a British colony, Nigeria was divided into the Northern Nigeria Protectorate, which had a primarily Muslim population, and the Southern Nigeria Protectorate, the population of which was mostly Christian. This religious breakdown, which didn't end with independence, is certainly responsible for the violent riots Biafra experiences in "A Private Experience."

RELATED LITERARY WORKS

Much of Adichie's writing touches the same or similar themes that she addresses in The Thing Around Your Neck. Half of a Yellow Sun takes place directly following the Biafran War, while Americanah considers what it means to be Black in Nigeria and in the West, as well as the immigrant experience. The immigrant experience in Western countries is one that has been explored by a number of authors from many different countries. Monica Ali's Brick Lane follows the story of a Bangladeshi immigrant who travels to London for an arranged marriage, while Junot Diaz's The Brief and Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao explores the experience of Dominican-American youth. Critics have compared The Thing Around Your Neck specifically to Home Land's story collection Interpreter of Maladies, which explores the experience of Indians in America.

Feminism and Beyoncé Though Adichie has expressed disappointment when people suggest that Adichie owes her fame to Beyoncé (Beyoncé's compilation of Adichie's TED talks on feminism in her 2013 song "Flawless"), Adichie has consistently defended Beyoncé against critics claiming that Beyoncé isn't actually a feminist.
