A Session by Session Guide to Life Story Work Gillian Shotton,2020-10-12 Life story work is a term often used to describe an approach that helps looked after and adopted children to talk and learn about their life experiences with the help of a trusted adult This book is an essential step by step guide for carers and professionals seeking to carry out life story work with a traumatised or vulnerable child in their care Underpinned by positive psychology and drawing on up to date research and real life practice the book offers a sound theoretical understanding of life story work as well as a practical and easy to use programme of sessions Each session covers the equipment and information needed a consideration of who is best placed to carry out the work and answers to commonly raised questions Also discussed are age appropriate approaches and ideas for extending each session into other activities and methods to make it more feasible for life story work to be a shared activity between two or three adults who know the child well This book gives professionals and carers the confidence to carry out life story work in a way that is sensitive to the child s needs and positive for their self perception and relationships Uncovering Spiritual Narratives Suzanne M. Coyle,2014 All cultures use story as a way to make sense of life Yet for many only a single story line is seen as the real truth Using narrative therapy as a caregiving approach can help individuals uncover multilayered narratives that are far more complex and liberating Drawing on theological approaches and real life experiences Coyle creates a contextual pastoral theology that helps caregivers find the power of God in people s stories Preventing Violent Radicalisation in Europe Patrizia Meringolo,2020-10-03 This book brings together the latest literature and European experiences on preventing youth violent radicalisation and violent actions in intergroup relations Youth violent radicalisation is a significant problem within the European context and requires an exploration of how various social actors can play an active role in preventing radicalisation in minors and young adults This complex issue needs to be explored through a multidisciplinary approach and effective operational models are needed in order to tackle it This book describes the theoretical framework for such an approach in all its facets The book s originality lies in its psychosocial and participatory approach aimed at improving results through professional training and community empowerment for building trusting relationships and educational activities It also proposes alternative narratives which are a way of representing people and groups within a social context thereby overcoming stereotyped visions and stigma This book focuses on participation and communication among stakeholders social inclusion strengthening democratic values and pursuing a proactive instead of a reactive approach to preventing radicalisation Highly topical the book will appeal to researchers and students of the social and behavioural sciences interested in youth radicalisation including social work and social policy as well as practitioners working within the juvenile justice system Narrative Therapy and Older People Rosslyn Offord,Polly Kaiser,Elizabeth Field,2025-10-21 Healthcare for older people tends to focus on physical limitations and cognitive decline and the person s own perspective and strengths are often overlooked Narrative therapy centres a person as the expert in their own story and is particularly effective when combined with an older person s wealth of life experience It highlights the way their views have been shaped by their cultural and personal contexts which allows better understanding and communication and improves people's lives Written by experienced psychologists group facilitators and service users this guide explores how to use narrative therapy with older people including those with dementia or age related conditions From Tree of Life facilitation to ways of approaching loss and trauma each chapter offers advice and proven strategies for practice for individuals staff teams groups and communities This book helps you to adopt a person centred approach to narrative therapy that helps service users to lead the life they want to live Where ageism and stigma often overwhelm older people and those who work with them narrative therapy brings the focus back onto the person themselves in the context of their history their family and their community who are they and what do they have to say
