John Heyl Vincent Leon Henry Vincent, 1925 Vincent and Pablo: The Revised Version Tony Warner, 2014-06-28
There are many books that chart the life of Vincent van Gogh and Picasso but there are very few that discuss their early personal life Vincent and Pablo The Revised Version is a romantic fiction that explores what might have happened if both artists had arrived in London as they both intended at the same time In 1873 Vincent van Gogh was sent to London as a gallery assistant for Goupil and Co He lived in Brixton and preached in a local church Gradually he became disillusioned with art dealing and unhappy in his personal life He was recalled to Paris giving up art dealing for the church and then for art itself If he had stayed in London his passion for art and his personal life may have concluded very differently In 1900 Pablo Picasso set off from Barcelona to travel London via Paris After a short stay in Paris the terrible weather and personal difficulties forced him to return to Barcelona if Picasso had made it to London and van Gogh had stayed could they have both established a friendship Would their art be different from the masterpieces that followed Tony Warner believes that Lust for Life by Irving Stone about van Gogh is one of the best known books in the artistic sphere He hopes to recreate the writing style of Graham Greene and Pat Barker both of whom have a way of telling a story without overburdening it with metaphysics or allegory This book will be enjoyed by readers of historical fiction especially those with an interest in art and romance
