WAR IN THE PACIFIC

BACKGROUND

In the 1930's, Japan's emperor, Isoroku Hirohito, began taking over neighboring countries in order to gain control of their import markets in order to improve the Japanese economy. Japan and the United States had never been great allies, but they had managed a functional trade relationship for many years. However, tensions began to escalate when Japan invaded Manchuria in 1931. In 1937, Japan also declared war on China, a country that the U.S. had established a strong relationship with. This became known as the Second Sino-Japanese War. America enforced a series of economic sanctions and trade embargoes to try to put a halt to Japanese expansionism. This only made Japan angry and more determined.

On September 1, 1939, Germany invaded Poland as part of Hitler's aggressive expansionist foreign policy. Two days later, France and Britain declared war against Germany and were later joined by the United States to form the Allies. On September 27, 1940, Japan, Nazi Germany, and Fascist Italy signed the Tripartite Pact, in which they agreed to mutually protect each other if any of them were attacked by a country not already involved in the war. The three nations became known as the Axis Powers.

KEY FIGURES

Hirohito – As Emperor of Japan from December 1926 to his death in January 1989, Hirohito was the leader of Japan during a period of increased expansionism and militarism, culminating in Japan's participation in World War II.

Isoroku Yamamoto – As the commander-in-chief of the Combined Fleet of the Imperial Japanese Navy during World War II, Yamamoto devised the initial plan to attack Pearl Harbor. He remained commander-in-chief until he was killed when his plane was shot down by American forces on April 18, 1943.
