The Excerpta Constantiniana and the Byzantine Appropriation of the Past András Németh, 2018-10-11 The Excerpta project instigated by the Byzantine emperor Constantine VII turned the enormously rich experience offered by Greek historiography into a body of excerpts distributed across fifty three distinct thematic collections In this the first sustained analysis Andr s N meth moves from viewing the Excerpta only as a collection of textual fragments to focusing on its dependence from and impact on the surrounding Byzantine culture in the tenth century He introduces the concept of appropriation and also uses it to study some other key texts created under the Excerpta s influence De thematibus De administrando imperio and De ceremoniis Unlike world chronicles the Excerpta ignored the chronological dimension of history and fostered the biographical turn in Byzantine historiography By exploring theoretical questions such as classification and retrieval of historical information and the relationship between knowledge and political power this book provides powerful new ways for exploring the Excerpta in Byzantine studies and beyond A Commentary on the Books of the Old and New Testament.
