The Demands of Recognition Townsend Middleton, 2015-10-21 Since the British colonial period anthropology has been central to policy in India. But today while the Indian state continues to use ethnography to govern those who were the objects of study are harnessing disciplinary knowledge to redefine their communities achieve greater prosperity and secure political rights. In this groundbreaking study Townsend Middleton tracks these newfound lives of anthropology. Offering simultaneous ethnographies of the people of Darjeeling's quest for tribal status and the government anthropologists handling their claims. Middleton exposes how minorities are and are not recognized for affirmative action and autonomy. We encounter communities putting on elaborate spectacles of sacrifice, exorcism, bows and arrows and blood drinking to prove their primitiveness and backwardness. Conversely we see government anthropologists struggle for the ethnographic truth as communities increasingly turn academic paradigms back upon the state. The Demands of Recognition offers a compelling look at the escalating politics of tribal recognition in India. At once ethnographic and historical it chronicles how multicultural governance has motivated the people of Darjeeling to ethnologically redefine themselves from Gorkha to tribal and back. But as these communities now know not all forms of difference are legible in the eyes of the state. The Gorkhas search for recognition has only amplified these communities' anxieties about who they are and who they must be if they are to attain the rights, autonomy and belonging they desire. The American Mercury George Jean Nathan, Henry Louis Mencken, 1925

The American Mercury Henry Louis Mencken, 1928 The Encounter Petru Popescu, 2016-09-13 THE ENCOUNTER tells the true story of National Geographic photographer Loren McIntyre who became lost in a remote area of Brazil in 1969 leading to a startling encounter that changed his life. The Broadway stage adaptation of THE ENCOUNTER will run from September 20, 2016 through January 8, 2017 at The Golden Theatre <http://theencounterbroadway.com>. A mindblower. Deadline Hollywood. Transfixing. Time Out New York. Haunting and enthralling. The Wall Street Journal. An astonishing work of theater. The New York Times. 1969 Loren McIntyre makes contact with the elusive Mayoruna cat people of the Amazon's Javari Valley. He follows them into the wild depths of the rainforest. When he realizes he is lost it is already too late. Stranded and helpless McIntyre must adjust to an alien way of life. Gradually he finds his perception of the world beginning to change and a strange relationship starts to develop with the Mayoruna chief. Is McIntyre really able to communicate with the headman in a way that goes beyond words, beyond language? Petru Popescu's gripping account of McIntyre's adventures with the Mayoruna tribe and his quest to find the source of the Amazon is reissued here to coincide with Complicite's acclaimed new stage production inspired by McIntyre's incredible story. Natural Resource Management And Sustainable Development In North-East India Nursadh Ali, 2007.
