Miller,2024-08-27 In this sparkling romance two professors with a complicated past get a second chance to prove history won't repeat itself Assistant professor Clara Fernsby is nothing if not driven She's wanted to teach history since she was fourteen and she hasn't let anything stand in her way not even the love of her life And it all paid off in the end because she landed a well paid position at a private liberal arts college fresh out of grad school and this year she's finally up for tenure When Theodore Harrison is brought on for the fall semester as a visiting scholar it's an unexpected blast from Clara's past She hasn't spoken to Teddy since rejecting him over a phone call ten years ago Now that he's here she's reminded of their time together at every turn autumns spent at a sleepaway camp in the Blue Ridge Mountains trading battered history books and burned CDs with the quiet dark haired boy she once fell in love with That boy might've been her best friend but the man teaching HIST 322 is a total stranger or so she thinks As they spend evenings working on a shared project and brainstorming over drinks at a college bar Clara realizes she's at risk of falling all over again Given their history she knows there's every chance he's not interested But history's all down to interpretation and this time around she's got no intentions of repeating it The Messenger Joseph F. Girzone,2002-05-14 From the bestselling author of Joshua and A Portrait of Jesus comes a moving eye opening parable about a messenger sent to reawaken faith love and compassion in a world that has strayed from the lessons of the Gospels In this Image paperback original Joseph Girzone once again weaves a story that will transform readers understanding of Jesus teaching and change the way they put that teaching into action in their own lives The Messenger is the story of the Kingdom of Light created by God on Earth This kingdom started as a small community and grew to encompass vast numbers of people of every race and nation transcending the boundaries of all worldly realms But with the passage of time the message of peace and forgiveness love and joy preserved in the book is forgotten overwhelmed by the selfish interests of its leaders Watching over his people God resolves to send a special messenger to renew the spirit of compassion and freedom among the rulers of the world Francis who became attached to God as a young boy and never lost the beauty and joy of that friendship is entrusted with the precious mission As Francis travels throughout the United States Girzone brings to life the conflicts hostility and pain of our times and

points the way toward peace and understanding With humility and a strong sense of purpose Francis teaches leaders to break through the crushing letter of the law and restore its spirit to reunite groups torn apart by prejudice and hatred through love and to show compassion to the less fortunate by welcoming them back home to the kingdom Under the guidance of a new ruler well versed in the book fear and skepticism give way to the sharing of ideas and the bringing together of people of different beliefs And the miracle that begins in one part of the world soon spreads touching the hearts and of transfiguring the lives of the people across the globe The Unseen Nanni Balestrini,2012-01-02 For a brief explosive period in the mid 1970s the young and the unemployed of Italy s cities joined the workers in an unexpectedly militant movement known simply as Autonomy Autonomia Its politics of refusal united its opponents behind draconian measures more severe than any seen since the war Nanni Balestrini the poet of youth rebellion himself a victim of that repression has invented a remarkable fictional form to express the hopes and conflicts of the movement In spare but vivid prose The Unseen follows Autonomy s trajectory through the eyes of a single working class protagonist from high school rebellion squatting and attempts to set up a free radio station to arrest and the brutalities of imprisonment This is a powerful and gripping novel a rare evocation of the intensity of commitment the passion of politics My Townie Heart Diana Sperrazza,2015-06-16 Laura DiStefano after flunking out of the University of Massachusetts returns to her blue collar home only to discover that her sister a fierce survivor of a childhood attack has rather foolishly gotten pregnant and needs her help As Laura adjusts to living in town again she unexpectedly falls in love with a local guy and finds herself torn between dreams of a new and better life elsewhere and the undertow of a dysfunctional family As the conflicts in her life threaten to drag her under Laura becomes agoraphobic How can she reconcile her divided loyalties and find her genuine life Page 4 of cover

Seminaries and divinity schools have for years been described as marketplaces of ideas Unfortunately many such institutions have been marketplaces or more appropriately malls of Western ideas In other words if one were to go shopping in these malls of theological education one will be amazed by the number of stalls stores and shops offering imported goods from theologies to liturgies to libraries to models of hermeneutics I cringe at the thought that the more we train our students the further they are drawn away from the poetry and the arts the thought forms and patterns the hermeneutics the sentiments and feelings and the imaginative and visioning processes of their own people 1 Anumang hiram kung hindi masikip ay maluwan Anything borrowed is either too tight or too loose The saying is true with clothes It is equally true with theology Panahon na upang iguhit ang sariling palad Panahon na upang lilukin ang sariling hugis Ihabi ang sariling talambuhay 2 We need more shops that proudly offer the depth and the breadth of diverse Filipino articulations and constructions of theology Anumang hiram kayang iwasto para sakto Nevertheless the Filipino has the ability to transform anything borrowed to fit him or her perfectly We also need more stores that showcase the Filipinos religious imagination that empowers them to beat

Academia versus the World Outside Bruce Fleming, 2024-08-06 Academia versus the World Outside lays out the givens of the knowledge industry located within the ivory tower colleges and universities It then moves outside academia to consider this restricted world the way most people see it The contrast between these two views of academia explains and is at the basis of the left right animosity of our day The knowledge industry a creation of the post Enlightenment modern age along with other industrial and post industrial enterprises is based on creating and adding to a store of knowledge as its own end This makes academia alien to the more random and personal nature of knowledge acquisition in our everyday lives as indeed every industry is alien to everyday life in the modern age Yet most academics are so immersed in the peculiar project they have chosen as their life s work that they are either unaware of or unsympathetic to the fact that people outside live very different lives with very different presuppositions Most non academics for their part find academia strange and for very good reason Academia versus the World Outside makes this contrast and conflict clear from both directions This book is aimed primarily at academics most of whom so take for granted the givens of what they do that they fail to understand why the vast majority of people outside find academia alien This has led to an increasingly hostile and utterly predictable left right political conflict academia tending increasingly left and the world outside increasingly right The goal of this book is to reduce the tension between both sides if read by non academics this book may help these understand the givens of a world as strange to everyday life as any other specialized industry in the modern age
