Romance Loves Landscape Series S English Edition:

The Written World Jeffrey N. Peters, 2018-05-15 In The Written World Space Literature and the Chorological Imagination in Early Modern France Jeffrey N Peters argues that geographic space may be understood as a foundational originating principle of literary creation By way of an innovative reading of chora a concept developed by Plato in the Timaeus and often construed by philosophical tradition as space Peters shows that canonical literary works of the French seventeenth century are guided by what he calls a chorological approach to artistic invention The chorological imagination describes the poetic as a cosmological event that gives location to or more accurately in Plato's terms receives the world as an object of thought In analyses of well known authors such as Corneille Molière Racine and Madame de Lafayette Peters demonstrates that the apparent absence of physical space in seventeenth century literary depiction indicates a subtle engagement with rather than a rejection of evolving principles of cosmological understanding Space is not absent in these works so much as transformed in keeping with contemporaneous developments in early modern natural philosophy The Written World will appeal to philosophers of literature and literary theorists as well as scholars of early modern Europe and historians of science and geography

Boys Love Media in Thailand Thomas Baudinette, 2023-10-05 Over the past several years the Thai popular culture landscape has radically transformed due to the emergence of Boys Love BL soap operas which celebrate the love between handsome young men Boys Love Media in Thailand Celebrity Fans and Transnational Asian Queer Popular Culture is the first book length study of this increasingly significant transnational pop culture phenomenon Drawing upon six years of ethnographic research the book reveals BL's impacts on depictions of same sex desire in Thai media culture and the resultant mainstreaming of queer romance through new forms of celebrity and participatory fandom The author explores how the rise of BL has transformed contemporary Thai consumer culture leading to heterosexual female fans of male celebrities who perform homoeroticism becoming the main audience to whom Thai pop culture is geared Through the case study of BL this book thus also investigates how Thai media is responding to broader regional trends across Asia where the economic potentials of female and queer fans are becoming increasingly important Baudinette ultimately argues that the center of queer cultural production in Asia has shifted from Japan to Thailand investigating both the growing international fandom of Thailand's BL series as well as the influence of international investment into the development of these media The book particularly focuses on specific case studies of the fandom for Thai BL celebrity couples in Thailand China the Philippines and Japan to explore how BL series have transformed each of these national contexts queer consumer cultures Victorian Landscape Watercolors Scott Wilcox, Christopher Newall, 1992 English landscape watercolor painting a perfect marriage of genre and medium entered a lively period of experimentation in style and content during the second half of the nineteenth century with rich and diverse results Through all the changes of style and technique and all the debates over the appropriate use of the medium it was watercolor's ability to convey the timeless truth and reality of the natural world that mattered to artists critics and audiences British watercolors of the Victorian period continued to observe an essential humility before nature they remain fresh and compellingly immediate because they derived in the first place from the artists heartfelt communion with the elements of nature Victorian Landscape Watercolors begins with a consideration of the continuing influence of the great generation who earlier in the century during the extraordinary parallel rise of watercolor and landscape painting had established the landscape watercolor as a major British contribution to the arts The second chapter examines the role of the landscape watercolor in the aesthetic thought of John Ruskin whose critical voice played a dominant role in shaping that art The third chapter looks at the place of landscape within the watercolor societies and its development as it appeared in their annual exhibitions The final chapter deals with the tug of new and old foreign and native in the later Victorian period The book also features 126 watercolors from public and private collections in America and England all reproduced in full color and accompanied by individual commentaries Among the 76 artists represented are David Cox Sr and Jr Walter Crane William Holman Hunt Edward Lear Samuel Palmer James Mallord William Turner James McNeill Whistler and Ruskin himself along with dozens of lesser known masters of the medium Victorian Landscape Watercolors is published in conjunction with the first exhibition to survey this period of this particularly British contribution to the arts the exhibition organized by the Yale Center for British Art in New Haven Connecticut will also be seen at the Cleveland Museum of Art and in Birmingham England The Academy and Literature, 1904 Scrolls of Love Peter S. Light O'love Clara Victoria Dargan Maclean, 1891 Notes and Queries, 1872 A Metaphysics of Love George Pattison, 2021 As the third part of a philosophy of Christian life A Metaphysics of Love builds on a view of Christian life as shaped by the dynamic of call response and promise It argues that love is the ultimate content of this dynamic and considers how far this claim extends Taking its bearings from Dante s vision of divine love as the power that moves the sun and other stars this study explores the requirement that love is both human and cosmic uniting being and beings Cognizant of much recent philosophy s desire to overcome or move beyond a metaphysics of being it examines some of the formal structures that make love possible including language time social being forgiveness and ultimacy Following on from the earlier volumes extensive use is made of the idea of the poetic as the eminent mode of Christian witness contextualized within the prose of everyday life Heidegger provides fundamental philosophical orientation whilst key features of love are brought to the fore through dialogue with Kierkegaard Dante and Dostoevsky are frequent points of reference in addition to a range of literary and religious sources including the Scottish poet Edwin Muir Leading scholar George Pattison concludes that the phenomenon of love requires us to articulate a metaphysics that involves both being and nothingness thereby taking a critical position vis vis both classical theism and existential atheism Notes
