Was Frankenstein Really Uncle Sam? Vol III Richard J. Rolwing, 2007-03-31 Calvin and the Federal Vision Jeong Koo Jeon, 2009-06-12 John Calvin 1509-64 was the pinnacle of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation in Europe. As we celebrate the five hundred year anniversary of his birth, it is worthy to explore Calvin's covenant theology which may be one of the best windows to understand and evaluate his theology as a whole. In recent years the Federal Vision has been surfaced in the American conservative Reformed and evangelical circles. It has strong hermeneutical, theological, and practical attachment with Calvin. Although Calvin was a covenant theologian, he firmly maintained the evangelical distinction between law and gospel, especially in his exposition of justification by faith alone (sola fide) and salvation by grace alone (sola gratia), with a balanced emphasis of believers' covenantal obedience. Moreover, we will find out that Calvin not only applied the distinction between law and gospel to soteriology but also in the depiction of redemptive history. In Calvin, the distinction between law and gospel was foundational for the depiction of biblical vision of eschatology in the Garden of Eden before the Fall and under the Old Covenant. However, the exponents of the Federal Vision deny any validity of the distinction between law and gospel in hermeneutics, theology, and practice while they identify themselves with those of Calvin. In that sense, we may identify the Federal Vision not with the Protestant Reformation and Calvin but as consistent monocovenantalism in which they deny the distinction between law and gospel and apply that monocovenantal principle consistently to their understandings of hermeneutics, soteriology, the doctrine of double predestination, and sacramental theology.

The Summary, 1912 Latin to GCSE Part 2 Henry Cullen, John Taylor, 2016-04-28 A companion to Bloomsbury's popular two-volume Greek to GCSE, this is the first course for Latin students that directly reflects the curriculum in a clear, concise, and accessible way. Enhanced by colour artwork and text features, the books support the new OCR specification for Latin first teaching 2016 as well as meeting the needs of later students both at university and beyond. Written by two experienced school teachers, one also an examiner, the course is based on a keen understanding of what pupils find difficult: concentrating on the essentials and on the explanation of principles in both accidence and syntax; minor irregularities are postponed and subordinated so that the need for rote learning is reduced. User-friendly, it also gives pupils a firm foundation for further study. Part 1 covers the basics, whilst Part 2 introduces a wider range of grammatical forms and constructions with a vocabulary of 450 words and reading material about the developing Republic: the war with Hannibal, the rise of Julius Caesar and Augustus, and the early emperors. Practice passages and revision sentences for GCSE complete Part 2, which has a reference section covering the whole course.
