

Practice 3

Use the following passage from Act II, scene ii of Romeo and Juliet to answer questions 1-15.

Juliet Juliet looks at her window

Rome But soft, what light through yonder window breaks?

- 5 It is the east, and Juliet is the sun.
Arise, fair sun, and kill the envious moon,
Who is already sick and pale with grief
That thou, her maid, art so wondrous.
10 Her yellow loins are past and green,
and her white fangs do enter it, soe it will be sorry lady, O, it is my love!
O that I were some other person!
She speaks, yet she says nothing, what of that?
15 Her eye-blankness, I will answer in
I am too true, 'tis not so sweet the answer
That of the flower that in all the leaves,
Showing some budness, she shows her eyes.
The window is their eye, till they return.
20 When y'hear such sweet terms, they in her face
The brightness of her cheek would shame those stars,
As daylight doth a lamp, her eyes in heaven
Would through the airy region stream as bright
30 Then looks would sing and birds in song right.
How long she loves her cheek upon her hand!
O that I were a glove upon that hand,
That I might touch that cheek!
40 Jul Ay me!
Rome She speaks!
O, speak again, bright angel, for thou art
As glorious to this night, being o'er the land,
As in a winged messenger of heaven.
45 Under the white euphorbia stand'ring type
Of her white star, O! look no more at her,
Whose look tempests the deep, so full of clouds,
And void upon the bosom of the sea!
50 Jul O Romeo, Romeo, wherefore art thou
Romeo?
Deny thy father and refuse thy name,
Or, if thou wilt not, let that name thy enemy,
And I'll no longer be a Capulet.
55 Rome [Aside.] Shall I hear more, or shall I speak at this?
Jul 'Tis but thy name that is the enemy,
Thou art thyself, though not a Montague.
What's Montague? It is nor hand nor foot,
Nor arm nor face, nor any other part

- 60 Challenging to a combat. O, for some other name
Which is no name! What shall we call it then?
By any other name would'st thou call it sweet,
But Romeo would, whilst he yet Romeo call'd,
Remains that dear perfection which he owns
65 Without that title. Romeo, don't thy name,
And I'll deny thee, which is no part of thee,
Take all in all!
Rome I take thee at thy word.
Call me but love, and I'll be true to thee!
70 Henceforth I never will be Romeo.
Jul What must I call thee then that thou hast sworn't
to night
No more shall we be called!
80 Rome My name
I have not how to tell thee what I am.
My name, dear saint, is hateful to myself,
Because it is an enemy to thee.
Had I it written, I would tear the word.
90 Jul My name have you not struck a hundred times
Of the tongue's writing, yet I know that would Avenge me Romeo, and a Montague!
Rome Mercutio, his cousin, if thou dost
100 know
Jul Where does he live, tell me, and wherefore?
The orchard with the high and hoarse clock,
And the place death, considering whether 'tis
110 If any of my kinsmen find their love.
Rome With love's light wings did I
o'erpass those walls,
For many long months hold I've been,
And what love can do, that done have strength,
120 Therefore thy kinsmen will not stop to me.
Jul If they do, what then, they will their
love
Rome Alas, those late hours past is done
yet
Then hurry up their wedding! Look thou but 130 sweet,
And I am proof against their envy.
Jul I would not for the world they saw their
love
Rome I have night's cloak to hide me from
their eyes,
140 And but thou know'st me, let them find me here,
My life were better ended by their hate,
Than death, preying on, working of thy love.
